COLONEL OF LOST HEROES DIES TO END HIS MEMORIES

Unknown Soldier's Burial Stirs Whittlesley To Sacrifice Himself

LEAPS FROM SHIP

Leaves Letters To His Relatives Who Tell Of Dispondency

(Special To The China Press)

New York, Nov. 29.—He who had seen so many unknown heroes, unknowing, go down to death, he the commander of the "lost battalion" in Belleau Wood, who when the Germans, roused to admiration by their heroism sent a flag of truce to beg this heroic remnant of a battalion "in God's name to surrender," met them with his curt command to "go to Hell;" in a word, Colonel Whittelsley who was one of the World War's great figures, has killed himself as a sacrifice to the "unknown" American soldier.

Such is the opinion of his relatives, friends and business associates after they received the sad news by wireless that he had disappeared from the steamer Solon. He had developed intense melancholy after attending the services at Arlington, where the unknown hero was laid to rest. Then he disappeared and the wireless news of his disappearance came as a terrible shock to all who knew him.

(Special To The China Press)

The radio came from the steamer Soloa which sailed from this port for Havana two days ago and gave the terse details of the ending of the career of one of the outstanding heroes of the American Expeditionary Forces. The message read, "Passenger named Whittlesley disappeared at sea, left several letters to relatives."

Here in New York, C. W. Whittlesley, the uncle of the colonel, said that Whittlesley had attended the services for the unknown American soldier at the National Cemetery at Arlington several weeks ago.

"My nephew seemed depressed, and broaded over the deaths of his own men in the 'Lost Battalion' engagement," the uncle said, "and the services at Arlington Cemetery seemed to bring his grief to the breaking point."

C. W. Whittlesley was not able to give the full details of the departure from New York of Colonel Whittlesley and the time and place of his actual death will probably remain an unsolved mystery.

Colonel Whittlesly was the hero of one of the most spectcular feats of the American fighting in the European War, when he gave his famous reply of "Go to Hell" to the commander of the German forces which had surrounded his handful of men in the Argonne forest. His men were under intense artillery fire for three days without food or even water when the demand for surrender was given.

His determination to break through rallied his men, and they were able to join their regiment. Colonel Whittlesley was voted the Congressional Medal of Honor for his extreme bravery in bringing his men to safety.

GLASS MAKERS INDICTED UNDER ANTI-TRUST LAW

(U. S. Navy Radio Through Reuter)

New York, Nov. 28.—The Federal Grand Jury has indicted fifty-one individuals of fifty- three corporations, manufacturing window-glass on a charge of violation of the Anti-Trust law. It has also indicted Mr. J. M. Neehan, President of the National Window-Glass Union on a charge of Labor and Capital conspiracy.

It's 'Shanghai Day' Today At The Automobile Show; Variety Program Tonight

Attractive Entertainment Features Promised; Out Of Town Visitors Had Their Day—Chinese Inspected The Exhibits

Yesterday marked another successful day for the Auto Show, a gratifying feature being the number of Chinese in attendance, furnishing the promoters with rosy hopes for an unusually big day today—"Shanghai Day."

Yesterday was "Outport Day," and special efforts were made by exhibitors and management to greet and entertain the visitors from other cities. A considerable number of dealers and excursionists from other treaty ports registered at the various booths and were received by the management and, as usual, most of dancing Shanghai was on hand during the evening to make use of the big ball room and appreciate Frank Barron's Carlton orchestra jazz tunes.

"Chinese Day"—Tuesday—evidently gave an impetus to attendance on the part of Chinese residents of the city and they were much more in evidence in the big exhibition pavilion.

Sales are going pretty well, dealers say, something over Tls. 75,000 worth of machines having been disposed of through the efficiency of exhibits up to last night. One concern has sold twelve cars to date and others report satisfactory results and cheering prospects.

Manager West spent a good part of yesterday with P. Zetterlund, the show photographer, taking pictures of the various exhibits. This work is to be continued until all the displays are photographed, after which a de luxe booklet will be prepared, giving a complete history of the Shanghai show, with pictures of the show buildings and all the exhibits.

This booklet will be sent to motor car manufacturers all over the world.

There was no special entertainment program last evening, but much is promised in the way of feature numbers for to-

Song Contest Pieces To Be Sung Tonight

The songs elected as the best of those contributed during THE CHINA PRESS-EVENING STAR contest will be sung at the Auto Show tonight by Mr. Aaron Glemby, one of the stars of the Shriners' Minstrel Show, and the award of first honors will be made.

The two songs to which selection has eventually been narrowed are "Hoot," a fox-trot, and "Goodbye Blues," a waltz, both fascinating numbers in the opinion of those who have heard them and calculated to "take" well with motor show enthusiasts. The Carlton orchestra will provide the accompaniment for the pieces and copies of the words will be distributed so that everyone may join in the chorus.

Immovable Mind Wrecks Irresistible Explanations

By Elsie McCormick

Women who lived in the long stretch of centuries preceding 1900 or so might have found that life in spots was decidedly rough going, kithographs to the contrary notwithstanding, Pilgrim mothers had several other occupations besides stepping off a rock, clasping rapt hands on a stern and rockbound coast, or carrying a hymn-book just behind a gentleman with a gun that opened up like a cornucopia. There were no delicatessen stores or canned soups in New England at that time, and the only washing-machine they knew anything about consisted of a brook and paddle to beat off the buttons with.

But even though they suffered the hardships of listening to Indian war-whoops with one ear and rocking the baby to sleep with the other, even though the word "cocktail" to them meant nothing but the stern foliage of chicken going east, and even though the future of the verb "to 6azz" had certain sulphuric connotations, Pilgrim mothers had at least one advantage over those of the present day.

SPARED MUCH NISERY

They didn't have to stand around while the Pilgrim Fathers explained the insides of automobiles to them.

We thought of that yesterday while we cuddled up to a typewriter in the CHINA PRESS booth at the Automobile Show and watched ladies of a dozen nationalities being steered by an elbow from one exhibit to another and trying to look intelligent while their masculine convoys told them just why a cylinder combusts or why an engine is an indispensible part of an automobile.

We don't know why it is, but we have noted that even the kindest of husbands and the most attentive of beaus always undergo a sad gasoline change when confronted with a motor.

THAT SOUTHERN MOVEMENT

What Do You Know About Quemoy?

WHAT do you know about the heart of the movement which Dr. Sun Yat-sen and General Chen Chiung-ming are leading? Not much, probably. But your lack of information is excusable.

Few, even among the old hands, in China have much understanding of it.

Readers will recall the brilliant series of articles on the Siberian-Japanese situation and on the ping-pong politics of Peking from the pen of Mr. Orrin Keith.

This searching mind is now at work in Southern China for THE CHINA PRESS. Mr. Keith is going all the way through the Southern Constitutionalist movement.

His articles will appear exclusively in THE CHINA PRESS.

Women Show Keen Interest In Details Of Arbuckle Trial Now Near End

Roscoe Arbuckle

WOMEN of all classes and ages seemed to find rare attraction in the Arbuckle murder hearing, for they crammed Judge Lazarus's court room and the corridors of the Hall of Justice, many, as shown above, spending the day in futile waiting for a chance to get in through the closed doors.

Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, famous motion picture comedian, who is being tried for manslaughter following the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, who attended a party in Arbuckle's suite in a San Francisco hotel.

Arbuckle Blames Woman For Death Of Miss Rappe

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—"I told Mrs. Delmonte to stop putting ice on Miss Rappe or I would throw her out of the window," testified Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle on trial for manslaughter arising through the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, a noted film artist who died during a carousal in the rooms of the comedian in a hotel here.

Arbuckle was the only witness called aside from Mrs. May Taube who was present at the "party" which ended in the untimely demise of Miss Rappe. His statement in direct examination was as follows:

"Missing Miss Rappe from the party, I went to look for her and found her lying on the floor of the bathroom, clutching her abdomen. I gave her water and helped her upon the bed. She was fully clothed.

"I went out. When I returned, I found Miss Rappe rolling on the floor and tearing off her clothing. I put her in bed again and called others who came in. Mrs. Delmonte told me to leave Miss Rappe to her and I told her to shut up or I would throw her out of the window. She was so persistent, that I took Miss Rappe to another room in the hotel with the assistance of an employe of the hotel."

DENIES APPLYING ICE

Arbuckle denied that he had forced Miss Rappe against a door or that he had applied ice to her body in an attempt to resuscitate the unconscious girl.

Regarding the ice, he testified on cross examination that Miss Rappe's clothing was not removed in his bedroom, but in the room to which she was taken although she had tried to tear it off in her delirium and while she was being moved.

He admitted he was present when all of Miss Rappe's clothing had been removed, and found Mrs. Delmonte by her side. Then was the first time he had seen the ice. He saw it in the bed and on Miss Rappe's body. He took the ice off Miss Rappe and when Mrs. Delmonte ordered him to put it back, he threatened again to throw her out of the window.

"Again I said, 'Shut up, or I'll throw you out of the window.' But finally I put the ice back where I had found it.

"Miss Rappe was unconscious before the ice was applied."

Asked whether he had threatened to throw Miss Rappe out of the window, Arbuckle reiterated that it was Mrs. Delmonte whom he had threatened.

Arbuckle's statements in his cross examination created a great sensation in the crowded court-room, where many of the auditors were women.

ARBUCKLE IS CALM

His attitude throughout the grilling by the lawyers of the prosecution was calm and dignified and he admitted freely many facts that at first seemed most damaging. His frankness created a good impression, since he spoke as a man who has nothing to hide, but who deplored a terrible accident which he could do nothing to avoid.

The trial is now near its end and while public and press opinion is sternly against such revels as the one in which Miss Rappe met her death, or died, the concensus is not so strongly against Arbuckle as before, since it is seen that he may have been a victim of circumstances.

Scottish Clans Gather To Skirling Of The Pipes

Eleven hundred guests answered the call for the meeting of the clans last night at the annual Caledonian Ball given in the Town Hall by the Shanghai St. Andrew's Society.

The scene presented in the gaily decorated ball room was far removed from the murky highland glens but the old days were brought back shortly after 9 o'clock when Piper McLennan led the march around the hall with a detachment of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps.

The ball room was decorated with clan shields, regimental arms, and overhead a network of greenery and lanterns formed a background for a huge St. Andrew's cross in electric lights.

The stairs leading to the ball room were banked with greens and flowers and a detachment of Sikh troopers stood guard over the line of guests as they were escorted to the dancing floor.

Promptly at 9:30 the Municipal Band began the dance program with the Blue Danube Waltz and then alternated with Harry Kerry's American jazz orchestra.

The traditions of Scotland and all Caledonian balls were fulfilled with the dancing of a foursome reel, and in this dance as well as others, the music of the bags under the fingers of Piper McLennan, added to the Highland tang of the evening.

Comments on the decorations used for the evening were a tribute to the work of Mr. Donald McColl and his staff of engineering assistants. The shields of the Scottish clans were ranked along the walls of the ball room and over the windows were thrown silhouettes of Scotch pipers with a large outline of Edinburgh Castle hung over the display of the regalia of the Society. The regalia, which included the mull horn and the snuff horn with inscriptions, showed the date of 1865, the year of the organisation of the Society here.

The sacred dish of all Scotchmen, the haggis, was served during the evening by Mr. Cameron, an expert in the mysteries of the composition of the dish. The haggis was carried by with all pomp and splendor and was received by the president with his sceau dhu.

The dinner served was a renewal of the Highland feasts served during the old days, and owing to the press of guests was served in relays.

The list of guests at the president's table was as follows:

Lady Frazer, Paymaster Commander and Mrs. Giles, Major and Mrs. Grierson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fox, Major Isler, Mr. W. H. Aall, Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Smith, Colonel Marr Johnston, The Dean and Mrs. Symons, The Rev. and Mrs. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, Judge Peter Grain, Mr. J. K. Trocea, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Speyer, Mr. M. F. Perkins, Commander Turner, Mrs. Stitt, Mrs. Stevenson, Commander H. Cosmo Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. John Prentice, Miss Law, Mr. Eric Ross, Mr. C. C. Mackie, Col. Palmer, M. Perrier, Capt. Von Heidenstam and The President Alistair S. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell.

CHINESE GROWING MORE OPTIMISTIC AS CLAIMS ARE BEING ENTERTAINED

Quick Action Is Attained By Various Committees Under Lash Of Hughes And Effort To Get Somewhere For World's Peace—But Now Comes Slippery Spot In Conference

IT LOOMS LIKE JACK O' LANTERN

Shantung Question—To Be Or Not To Be Is The Difficulty Over It And Manchuria—Also The 21 Demands—Can They Get By?

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, Nov. 29.—The reported depression of the Chinese delegates at the conference is unwarranted. The feeling here is more optimistic than a week ago, as action on the questions before the conference is coming faster than was expected. Different direct items are taken up almost daily and referred to the committees which Secretary Hughes is driving into quick action.

It is expected that shortly all of China's desired objects will be in the committees' hands and immediate results follow. The delegates are expected to approve in principal the postal autonomy already declared and it is expected that a decision soon will be announced for the gradual abolition of extraterritoriality after it has been investigated by an international commission to be sent to China to establish the machinery for new courts.

Present indications are that each power will be left to decide for itself the time of withdrawal of its foreign postoffices in China.

Minister Alfred Sze will next present the question of withdrawal of foreign troops from Chinese soil and the abandonment of foreign telegraphs and wireless stations.

The toughest issue, Shantung and Manchuria, will be presented next, together with the Open Door. The crisis on these matters is not expected before a fortnight. While there is some hope of the restitution of Shantung, little hope is entertained that Japan will yield Dairen, Port Arthur, and the South Manchurian railway, except as provided in the twenty-one Japanese demands. The Japanese may even refuse to evacuate Shantung except on the condition of the recognition of the validity of the twenty-one demands with regard to Manchuria.

The basic fear under all decisions centers on disorder in China, and the ability of the government to maintain itself for next few months. Siberia will soon be a subject of discussion at the conference, and the State Department has been preparing the case.

It is a significant fact that numerous American officials have been recently in Siberia, all avoiding recognition in China and these officers are now here.

BY FREDERICK W. WILE

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, Nov. 29.—Japan seems to have lost her fight for the retention of the Mutsu, it was officially announced tonight. The 70 percent ratio demanded by Japan has been found to be without merit after a close scrutiny of the naval experts of Britain and Japan. The hour is almost at hand when the conference will reassemble in open session for a plea of an increased ratio by Japan of "5-5-3½."

The United States representations are: "We are giving up the newly completed battleship Colorado and we see nothing unfair in asking Japan to give up the Mutsu of an almost identical type. Our contention is that the Hughes program leans to the side of Japan."

The Far East committee was occupied today with considerations of the Chinese demands on "postal sovereignty." Japan, Great Britain, France and the United State have agreed to abandon postal agencies in China, as soon as an efficient Chinese postal service is maintained.

The powers also require an unchanged status on the part of the foreign co-director general. China submitted a request for the withdrawal of foreign troops stationed in China without treaty sanction.

JAPAN STILL INSISTS

HARBOR EXPERTS PRESENT REPORT AT FINAL SESSION

The Committee of Consulting Engineers who have been investigating the question of Shanghai harbor development yesterday completed their labors which were started on October 15.

In all the Committee have held over fifty sessions, and at a meeting of the Whangpoo Conservancy Board yesterday afternoon, the Committee's original report was presented by Major-General W. M. Black, who, in handing over the document, conveyed the thanks of the members of the Committee to the Whangpoo Conservancy Board for the reception which had been extended to the members during their stay in Shanghai by the Board as well as by both the Chinese and foreign communities.

Mr. Gordon Lowder on behalf of the Board thanked the Committee for the important results they had achieved, and also expressed the Board's high and sincere appreciation of the manner in which the Committee had tackled their work.

The report will now be transmitted to the Chinese Government by the Board, following which it will be published.

All of the members of the Consulting Committee are leaving shortly for their respective homelands. Major-General and Mrs. Black will sail for America on December 14, while all the other members will be leaving Shanghai within the next week. Mr. P. G. Hornell goes directly home and the rest of the committee plan to visit Peking and other cities in the North before going home.

matter of naval limitations now seem certain, with naval experts battling over competing claims. The Japanese demand for a seventy per cent ratio, as compared with Great Britain and the United States is still in committee.

If the Japanese insist on retaining the Mutsu, then the Americans will probably insist on retaining at least the Maryland or Colorado, and probably one other ship of the same class, while the British will also insist on proportionate additions to their forces.

The whole status of affairs has caused a reaction from the enthusiasm which marked the first few days after the conference opened. While the protest of the Japanese correspondents at the failure of their representatives to accept immediately the Hughes' proposal has been silenced, still there is a disposition among Japanese, including business delegations to regret Kato's failure to make the one big dramatic gesture and conquer world opinion by immediate acceptance.

KATO ASKS FAIR BASIS

Kato, in speaking before the Japanese business men, assured them that a settlement would be reached on a fair basis. Since recognising the sincerity of the Americans at the conference, he said, he had become determined to meet America on the same basis, wherefore there was no cause to worry and the taxpayers of Japan would be granted relief.

Aircraft and the use of gas in warfare entered into the discussions of the conference for the first time and was referred to a committee for examination. This committee will also consider new rules for warfare.

Briand, just prior to his departure, at a secret session renewed his defense of the French stand and opposed the Italian resolution expressing the hope that the Conference in the near future would take action to limit land armaments. France, Briand said, is voluntarily reducing her army in the same proportion as other nations, and he argued that the resolution is unfair to France because it would not apply to European nations not represented at the Conference.

It is reported that Briand was given the assurance that no action looking toward the limitation of land armaments would be taken by the Conference during his absence.

LIKIN IS DEFERRED
(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 27.—In reply to the request of the United Chinese Chambers of Commerce for the abolition of likin the Ministry of Commerce has stated that the Government is anxious to comply, but in view of the importance of the measure and the difficulties involved it must be given the most careful consideration before any action can be taken.

GOES TO WASHINGTON
(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Vladivostok, Nov. 30.—M. B. S. Kolesnikov will leave today for Washington to attend the Washington Conference. M. N. Merkulov's departure has been delayed.

CHURCHILL OPTIMISTIC
(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—Mr. Winston Churchill, speaking before a meeting of overseas bankers today, said that the Washington Conference contained brilliant hopes for the improvement of the world's affairs. Foreign politics were resolving into a triple understanding between the United States, Britain and Japan to secure the peaceful development of the Pacific.

Another triple arrangement was necessary, namely a friendly understanding between Britain, France and Germany for the rehabilitation of Europe. Nothing less was adequate to meet the perils of the economic situation.

Statesmen of all countries were advancing to financial sanity. The nonsensical froth about extracting 20,000 millions from Germany was now reduced to the more practical form of recognition that international payments were only possible in goods and services. Britain in the Dominions had an outlet for her energies.

Mr. Churchill urged bankers, before casting their money to strangers, to be sure that the Empire did not contain the means of securing a swift and certain returns.

Forerunners Of Chinese Delegates Arrive

OZAKI ABETS HUGHES
(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, Nov. 30.—Mr. Yukio Ozaki, in an interview with the representative of the Eastern News Agency, stated that Japan should strongly support the original naval proposals rather than make plans for her national defense by insisting upon a ratio of 70 percent. It would be the more advisable for her thus to make the powers understand her sincerity for world peace.

RELINQUISH RIGHTS
(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Nov. 29.—The Far Eastern Committee has passed a resolution in favor of the relinquishment of foreign extra-territorial rights in China and also providing that in the event of the International Commission which will study Chinese laws and court practices, finding the judicial system adequate, foreign courts will also be withdrawn.

The Committee also discussed China's request for the withdrawal of foreign troops, to which it is understood to have agreed in principle, but deferred further discussion to another meeting.

It is understood that the Japanese told the Committee they would later submit complete reasons for the presence of Japanese troops in China, although they agreed in principle that the presence of foreign troops was a violation of Chinese rights.

On the other hand the Chinese gave a long review of the present position and advanced detailed arguments supporting their demands for the withdrawal of foreign troops. The other delegates took only a secondary part in the discussion.

ALLIANCE TO GO

Paris, Nov. 29.—The newspapers state that the Japanese Cabinet, while supporting in principle the demand of the Japanese delegation for the increase to 70 percent of the proportion of Japanese naval tonnage with regard to the American and British tonnage allottments, have given instructions to Admiral Baron Kato to accept, if he considers it necessary, the proportion, proposed by Mr. Hughes.

The problem which is now preoccupying Japanese circles is the following: in the eventuality, now almost certain, of the abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, will means be found to replace and compensate for this alliance? The British delegates are manifestly endeavoring to find an agreement on the question of China and Manchuria which would permit the announcement of a Anglo-Japanese military paot.

MUST EQUATE UNITS

Paris, Nov. 29.—The correspondent of the Agence Havas at Washington, reviewing the work of the Conference, says the main question of naval disarmament, is in the way of settlement, at least as regards capital ships, but the Conference must afterwards settle the proportion between large fighting units and defensive units, especially submarines, in which France is most interested.

The French Delegation, while consenting to a reduction of 200,000 tons capital tonnage, will ask for the maintenance of a submarine tonnage equal to that of the Great Naval Powers namely 75,000 tons.

FRANCE ASKS EQUALITY

Washington, Nov. 29.—It is understood that the French delegation is prepared to ask for an aggregate capital ship tonnage equal to that of Japan, while Italy will ask for a capital tonnage equal to that of France.

TOKIO DIRECTS KATO
(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Nov. 28.—Admiral Baron Kato has laid before the cabinet diplomatic council at Tokio the question of tonnage ratio of capital warships allotted to Japan under the Hughes' plan. He is understod to have received from Tokio explicit instructions regarding procedure at the conference.

DISCUSS SHANTUNG?

Washington, Nov. 28.—The question as to whether the conference would endeavor to settle the dispute over Shantung occupied the peace delegates today. The Chinese believe that Shantung occupies a prominent place in the conference program. The Japanese say that no discussion of the matter is necessary here.

The Chinese, on the other hand, claim that if Shantung and the 21 demands are settled at Peking or Tokio the Chinese people will mistrust any settlement except in the open before the world powers. Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese delegate, says that China will press the necessity for the return of Shantung and abrogation of the 21 demands.

HANKOW WIRES DELEGATES

Hankow, Nov. 26.—A cablegram was despatched to Washington yesterday afternoon by the Hankow Association of All-Unions addressed to Alfred Sze, Wellington Koo, Wang Chung-hui, and other members of the Chinese Delegation to the Pacific Conference now in session. The despatch of a cablegram to the Chinese delegation at Washington was unanimously adopted at a general meeting of the Association which is composed of thirty-two civilian organisations in Hankow. The cablegram was:

"Alfred Sze, Wellington Koo, Wang Chung-hui, Chinese Delegation, Washington.

"Firmly hold China's stand. Fight all issues. Dont yield under any circumstances. China's national existence hinges on you three. Look Out!

"Hankow Association of All-Unions."

ALL GOES WELL
(Eastern News Agency)

Washington, Nov. 27.—Referring to the Far Eastern problems, the New York Times today writes as follows:

"The fact that the Far Eastern Committee has in principle approved of the withdrawal of extraterritoriality and foreign post-offices in China shows a proof that the Far Eastern problems have thus far been discussed smoothly. In consequence, looks of gladness have been once more restored on the faces of the Chinese delegates, who a few days ago gave vent to their pessimistic sentiments.

"In connection with China's customs question, the Powers being much in sympathy with China, the Conference is to all appearance making smooth progress. It is inferred, therefore, that the Powers will decide in the end to raise China's tariff to ten percent ad valorem from January of next year, and to revise it again one year later and to grant to China perfect independence of her customs at no distant date.

"In the meantime, among intelligent elements here, opinion is being held that it is not advisable for China to tender her proposals, adhering to too much trifling matters, and that it is most imperative for her at this moment to make the Powers comprehend her major assertion and at the same time to endeavor as much as possible to avoid intensifying unsavory feelings between the Powers."

THE FIFTH WISE MAN

"I'll wait a while before buying my life insurance," said the first wise man. He had to pay 15 per cent more because the cost had increased.

"Next year will be just as good," said the second wise man. He died six months later.

"I'm in no hurry—I can get insurance any time," said the third wise man. He discovered his error later, when the doctor told him he was uninsurable.

"I'll have more money for insurance in a couple of years," said the fourth wise man. But a reckless chauffeur ran over him, and the day when he can buy insurance has passed.

Now there was a FIFTH man and he bought his Life Insurance from the Asia Life Insurance Company when he had the chance. He isn't worrying any. Neither is his family.

Immovable Mind Wrecks Irresistible Explanations

A wild light seems to illuminate their eyes and the Ancient Mariner spirit overtakes them to such an extent that their one-lady audience might as well reconcile herself to being rooted to the spot until her escort tells her why the cylinders shoot in the Albatross or whatever make he happens to be referring to.

ALACK! TELLS IT AGAIN

He is like the Ancient Mariner also in that telling the story once doesn't seem to relieve his mind any. After the lady has eased from one foot to the other and said, "Oh, yes, I see," fifteen times and "That's really quite interesting" about as often, she turns away with a sigh of relief and begins to make for that limousine with the perfectly stunning little Kewpie on the radiator which she had been heading toward ever since entering the show.

But only a few steps farther on, her escort halts again with the Ancient Mariner look in his eye and unbosoms himself in what to her is totally blank verse on the difference between a sleeve-valve and a feed-pipe. If not married to him or if married and hoping for the purchase of an automobile, she cranks her face up into an expression of forced interest and begins again the old litany of, "Oh, yes, I see."

MARRIED BUT HOPELESS

If married but without hope of anything beyond a season ticket in the trams, she confines her responses to "Uh-huh" and then takes a short cut to the town car with the crystallised rose-petal handles on the doors and the platinum safety deposit box in one of the side-pockets.

This doesn't signify, however, that women are bored by automobile shows. As a matter of fact, the automobile show, with its accessories of music, soft lights, potted palms, statuary, and velvet-lined limousines was created for them by salesmen who came to realise that women are the real power behind the treasury and that a husband's chief function in regard to the family checkbook is merely to sign his name on the dotted line.

If automobile shows were held primarily for men, they would take place in a greasy garage with mechanics in overalls on duty instead of handsome salesmen in dinner coats, and the display would consist principally of engines in the nude. But as the owner of the hand that rocks the rolling-pin buys cars chiefly because of their upholstery and the cute little vanity cases inside, the exhibitors dress up their machines like the famous plush horse. They then leave just a few skeletonised engines around so as to give the men their only chance of the year to explain something without being contradicted.

POOR QUEEN OF SHEBA

The Shanghai Automobile Show has taken care of both sets of interests. There are limousines exquisite enough to make the Queen of Sheba wonder why she ever put up with caravans so long and undressed engines enough to satisfy the most fastidious admirer of the mechanical altogether.

There is a Sunbeam with its nose and front wheels in the air, posed for a high jump to the summit of a telegraph pole, a Willys-Knight all undressed for the operating-table and a Buick chassis in the Honigsberg exhibit that doesn't even wear a kimono. But the bets are 10 to 1 that the female of the species who looks with interest in the floor mirrors revealing the turning wheels while her escort explains for the nineteth time just what a spark-plug is supposed to do, is really trying to find out if her hat is on straight. In case it is, she pulls it crooked again and proceeds to the next set of looking glasses.

So all yesterday afternoon we sat around and watched the irresistible force of a desire to explain something meeting up with the immovable object of incomprehension. Even Chinese ladies swayed on golden lilies and tried to edge away toward the donations of Palmolive soap and the vacuum cleaner while their escorts tried to tell about carburetors in a language adopted to sedan-chairs.

Incidentally, the Automobile Show will furnish Shanghai swains with an unexcelled means of finding out where they stand. If she is still smiling after you have explained the fifth engine to her, you might just as well do a little measuring on a certain finger of her left hand.

PEKING IS DOING ITS BEST TO AID TROUBLED BANKS

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 27.—That all native banks in Peking should accept the notes of the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications was the decision reached yesterday at a meeting of financial authorities and bank representatives, according to this morning's issue of the Jih Pao.

The paper declares that the meeting was attended by the Minister and Vice-Minister of Finance, representatives of the eighteen Chinese banks in Peking, the Chief of the Peking Gendarmarie and the Superintendent of Police and that as a result of their deliberations the banking representatives were asked to sign papers saying the notes would be taken in payment of drafts, bills of exchange, etc.

The arguments supposedly advanced in favor of this proposition were that as the government was doing its best to support the banks there was no reason why the notes should not be accepted regardless of their denominations. Consequently the proposition was adopted to be put into effect today and announced to the public.

Information from communication circles retailed by this same paper states that $1,200,000 arrived yesterday afternoon on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway. The shipment was made by the Salt Bureau at Shanghai and after being duly inspected by the Salt Administrator here was turned over to the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications.

CUT DOWN AMOUNT

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 26.—The Bank of China and the Bank of Communications have gotten together, according to reports from Chinese sources, and are restricting the amount of money that is paid out to each individual, because of the great shortness of silver money, though it is also reported that these banks will begin the unlimited redemption of notes by December first. It has been decided, according to the reports to begin this redemption at the Tientsin branch.

China Organisation Wires To Conference

China's many problems were embodied in a joint resolution which was passed by the All China People's Diplomatic Association yesterday afternoon and telegraphed to Secretary C. E. Hughes, chairman of the Pacific Conference now in session at Washington. The meeting was held at the rooms of the World's Chinese Students Federation, with Dr. T. H. Lee presiding.

Extra-territoriality, questions of international financing, treaties, the Twenty-one Demands, and the independence of Korea all were included in the message. The telegram follows:

"To Mr. Charles E. Hughes, Chairman of the Pacific Conference, Washington:

"We Chinese, members of the All-China People's Diplomatic Association strongly propose and urge the following points for favorable consideration at the conference:

"1.—Strict observance and regard for Chinese territorial rights.

"2.—The recognition of the Independence of Korea.

"3.—The legal correction of all of the illegal treaties now in force affecting China.

"4.—The return of Tsingtao without stipulation and the cancellation of the Twenty-one Demands of Japan, including all memorandum attached thereto.

"5.—The absolute abolition of the practice of foreign powers aiding China financially, with the idea of restricting and shortening internal strife."

How To Aid Their Own Industries Worrying Dutch

(Reuter's Service)

The Hague, November 29.—The Government Commission on Economic Policy met today under the presidency of the Minister of Agriculture. The Minister of Labor and the Minister of Waterstaat and delegates from the Ministries of Finance, the Colonies and Foreign Affairs were present.

After a long discussion of the causes of the present economic difficulties, the Minister of Agriculture promised to appoint a small sub-commission to study the question of the desirability of preventing foreign competition and assisting national industry by temporary prohibitions of imports, temporary increases in import duties or the granting of industry credits, and also a sub-commission to consider the degree to which the State in giving orders might give national industry larger or different preference.

ASK G.$236,717 IN DAMAGE SUIT

Damages of G.$236,717.50 are sought in a civil suit brought in the Mixed Court.

Edward Maurer Company, Inc., an American firm, is suing Tah Chang-sen and Company, and Chieu Wei-ching, said to be the owner of the concern, for alleged failure to accept delivery of a large number of kegs of indigo paste, on two contracts. One contract for 1,500 kegs, or about 200,000 pounds, is alleged to have been made on November 22, 1919, at 85 cents per pound. The Chinese firm accepted only 236 kegs of the lot and have refused to settle even after arbitration. According to the complaint, $60,717.50 damages are asked on the contract.

In April, 1920, a second contract for 3,000 kegs, or about 400,000 pounds is alleged to have been made at a price of 94 cents per pound. A total of 2,030 kegs arrived in Shanghai and delivery was refused, according to the complaint, and damages for $176,000 is asked.

Tah Chang-sen and Company assert that they are not liable for damages because the paste was not up to specifications in qaulity, packing, or time of delivery.

Rodger and Haskell appeared for Edward Maurer Company, and Fleming, Bryan and Davies for the defendants.

Shanghai Day At Auto Show Today

night, tomorow night and Saturday.

For this evening a concert is in prospect which should surpass in effectiveness even that provided at the opening. Mr. Aaron Glemby is to give some of the numbers that won him applause as "Blinky Bill" in the A. D. C's. production of "The Belle of New York," for one item. Then there will be Mr. G. James, whose tenor is in great demand, and the Silas Brothers. Mr. Cody has a couple of numbers on the "Al Jolson" order and Messrs. Barney Puck and Eddie Brock, U. S. Navy entertainers of envied repute, will lend variety to the "show." A quartette is being arranged and Mr. Glemby will sing the songs selected as the best of those sent in during THE CHINA PRESS-EVENING STAR Automobile Show song contest.

MINSTRELS TOMORROW

Tomorrow night the Shriners Minstrels will take the stage and repeat the delightful conglomeration of Southern melody and comedy which scored so popular a success at the Olympic Theater last week. The Carlton is adding a feature in the way of a "mystery" presentation.

Saturday night, the concluding night of the show, is to be dedicated to the spirit of carnival with festivities in the way of a fancy dress masquerade ball. Some particularly colorful innovations are under consideration by the management and Manager Ellis of the Carlton predicts that it will be the biggest night of that establishment's year. In addition to the dancing the Entertainment Committee of the show has arranged for an appearance by the Danish prima donna, Miss Nora Levestam, who will give songs in English, French and Italian.

A special dinner will be served and there has already been a rush for reservations. The management points out that while reservations can be made for dinner tables, it is not possible to reserve tables for patrons intending to drop in later in the evening. Six prizes are to be awarded during the course of the evening to ladies and gentlemen whose costumes strike the committee as being particularly handsome or out of the ordinary.

Marry, Not Us, Tell That To The Marines

(U. S. Navy Radio Through Reuter)

Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary of the Navy Denby urged the retention of the present marine rate of pay before the Congress Commission on Service Pay. He said that Navy men are confronted with serious conditions if their pay is reduced. Representative McKinley suggested higher pay to married officers. Secretary Denby replied that this might force many men to marry but he would consider the suggestion and report.

PIPES STOPPED WITH FLOOD OF GOLD PIECES

(Special To The China Press)

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—If you were a fireman on a steamer and when testing the fire hose found that you could not lift it nor get water through it, what would you think?

And when you unscrewed the nozzle to see why the water did not flow, a flood of golden sovereigns poured out on your feet and rolled about the 'tween decks, what would you think then?

Yes. That was the kind of thinking done by Sailor Ornstein of the good ship Sonoma—a millionaire for a minute, but only just a minute. Then everyone swooped down upon him and the cry was:

"Oh! you've found the missing sovereigns. Halvers on the reward!"

"You crazy," countered Ornstein with "finders weepers, loosers keepers," which was as near as he could come to that classic motto of the picker-up in his excitement.

At any rate he had found part of the hoard of 102,800 golden sovereigns stolen from the Sonoma's strong room while en route from Australia. Then the hunt was on for the remainder as his total catch was only a miserable $150,000 out of a glorious half-million.

Soon it was found that the water-screens were buckling with the strain of some oil cans hung upon them and the rest of the treasure was found therein. And so the strong room robbers were foiled in their strong arm work.

But what did Ornstein get, you ask. One hundred of the 27,000 odd was his reward, about one-third of one percent. Yet it was velvet and his co-workers had a thirst and then a headache, and that more could a steamer fireman ask of fate.

FOREIGN LEAGUE BASKETBALL PLAY TO OPEN TONIGHT

Two Games Carded At Chinese "Y"; Two Tomorrow At Rowing Club

The Foreign League basketball season will open tonight with a double-header at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, the first game between the American School and the Y.M.C.A. Bearcats beginning at 8:15 sharp. The two teams will probably line up as follows:

American School—Parker, Hager, F., Weens, Griffiths, F., R. Squires, C., Waters, C. Squires, G., Chase, G.

Bearcats.—Cray, Carroll, F., Roxburgh, F., Geldart, C., Hirsh, G., Lewis, Irle, G.

The second game at 9:15 is between the Y.M.C.A. team and the Public School. On the first group, Pettit and Van Hook will probably play forward, with Bartlett center, and Roberts and Davis or Miller guards. Of the Public School team, little is known except that in Levis and Johanneson they have two experienced players.

Spectators are invited to all the league games, a special section being reserved for them at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium.

Tomorrow's games will be played on the Rowing Club floor, with Anderson Meyer and Co. opposing the Strokeside Rowing Club five in the first game commencing at 6 p.m., and the Shanghai College meeting the Bowside team at 8:30 o'clock.

FRAT'S RULE AT HARVARD SPLITS STUDENT BODY

Unique Upheaval Threatens Dignity Of Football And Rowing

BY ARTHUR ROBINSON

New York, November 5.—An upheaval, unique in modern football history, has engulfed Harvard in the throes of civil warfare, and the young men of Cambridge have taken to writing letters to the Harvard Crimson and the editors of the Boston newspapers.

The dignity of the Harvard football authorities and undergraduates seems to have been offended by hostile demonstrations of crowds which have watched the Harvard team play this year, and steps are being considered to exclude the football public of Boston from the Stadium next season.

Harvard men, it appears have become extremely unpopular in Boston, and Boston asserts its hostility to Harvard's football enterprises by rooting against the Crimson team.

Last Saturday something in the nature of riot followed in the immediate wake of Centre's victory over Harvard, and Harvard undergraduates accuse graduates of other colleges taking special courses at Cambridge of precipitating the disorder.

FRATS STILL RULE

This is denied, and an inquiry into the causes of the unfriendly feeling which exists in Boston has revealed some interesting information.

This writer is informed by one close to the heart of athletic control at Harvard that the fraternities still exercise almost absolute influence over the make-up of the football team and crew, and that as a result of this the student body itself is split into two factions—a small aristocracy and a large democracy.

The aristocracy, we are informed, concerns itself only with the football team and the crew but does not pass upon the social qualities of candidates for the baseball and track teams.

The graduate students, it is also stated, sympathise with those opposed to the rule of the Crimson "blue noses," and the opposition to the social rule has even extended to the proletariat of Boston.

The main antipathy to Harvard however, is derived from Harvard's disregard of the public's demand that the Harvard players be numbered—a policy to which Harvard has adhered while Yale and Princeton and almost every other institution in the East, with the exception of the military and naval academies, have submitted to the popular demand, a demand which was made by under-graduates as well as alumni.

"Harvard's trouble," the writer is informed, "is deep rooted and ancient, and nothing but a volcanic upheaval will effect a cure and re-establish Harvard's popularity with the public at large.

"Harvard," he added, "has build-ed a sort of monarchical rule, and the feeling throughout the world is that the day of the monarchy and rule by divine right of birth is over. It never did have a place at Harvard, and it has been only recently that the football public of Boston is outwardly expressing its opinion of Harvard's aloofness and its refusal to number the players.

"This short-sighted policy has not only damaged Harvard throughout the country, but sooner or later will drag Harvard down from its athletic pre-eminence. Harvard has had a number of good football teams in recent years, but a finer spirit would prevail among the student body and Harvard would have even better football teams if the fraternities were made to keep their hands off and those in control were replaced by progressives."

Dalgarno's Djemnah Wins St. Andrews Day Ewo Race

Mile Tiffin-Time Handicap Revived With Good Crowd Present

"Dolly" Dalgarno on his own pony, Djemnah, won the one-mile Ewo Handicap at the tiffin-time race at the Race Club yesterday in a neck and neck finish with Mr. Zellensky on Mr. M. Speelman's Zaandam. Mr. H. G. Elliot on Mr. J. P. B. Eastwood's Bachelor Tax was third. Time 2:08 3|5.

Nineteen ponies with Ewo jockeys up faced the starters flag and a fairly large, enthusiastic crowd lined the railing and gathered on the Club steps.

After the race Mrs. A. Brooke Smith presented the winning jockeys with silver cups presented by Mr. C. C. Boyd, and presented Mr. V. D. K. Craddock with the booby prize, a whip. Mr. Boyd rode a hard race on his own pony, Hunter, but was unable to do better than trail the field although he flashed past the finish line nose and nose with another pony.

The race was a revival of the old time St. Andrew's Day race for the St. Andrew's Cup, once one of the premier events of the year. Entries were confined to members of the staff of Jardine, Matheson and Company.

In addition to the winners the following also ran: Kiangwan Town (Mr. C. C. Boyd), Hunter (Mr. Craddock), Tryile 11 (Mr. Beith), Invervon (Mr. F. A. Pollock), Glenal (Mr. Gordon), Christmas Bell (Mr. Heard), Foston (Mr. Lanning), One-of-Them (Mr. Lennox), Pilgrim (Mr. Dallas), Nelson (Mr. Harper), Not-So-Dusty (Mr. Raeburn), John Jorrocks (Mr. Gandossi), Siwa (Mr. Johns), and Great Sport (Mr. Clarke).

Considerable betting went on among the members, and friends of the jockeys and owners, with Nelson and Pilgrim the favorites, Pilgrim, with Mr. Dallas up, finished fourth after a tussle with Bachelor Tax, who nosed into third place.

The following shows how the ponies were figured:

	Against
Djemnah	4—1
Zaandam	6—1
Bachelor Tax	12—1
Pilgrim	4—1
Christmas Bell	5—1
Tryile 11	5—1
Nelson	3—1
Great Sport	100—1
Hunter	100—1
John Jorrocks	200—1

The time of the race by quarters: 31 4-5, 1:03 3-5, 1:36 3-5, 2:08 3-5.

The race is not considered official by the Shanghai Race Club.

Manila, Nov. 24.—Four boxers from the U. S. S. Huron have been matched to fight Filipino boxers at the Olympic Stadium while the Huron is in port.

Kid Roth, a welterweight, is matched to fight Big Manuel, and either Burns or Johnson, middleweights, will fight Kid Pelky.

Tilden Will Not Play Next Year At Wimbledon

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—William T. Tilden 2d, American lawn tennis champion, said here today he did not expect to go to England next year to play in the British championship, which he has twice won.

"Much as I would like to try for the title at Wimbledon again," Tilden said, "I feel that, in view of the strenuous season in prospect here, the risk would be too great."

Tilden said he looked for more determined competition for the Davis Cup next year.

Australians Win Final Test Match By 10 Wickets

Capetown, Nov. 29.—The Australians won the third and final Test Match against South Africa today by ten wickets. The South Africans scored 180 in the 1st innings and 216 in the 2nd. The Australians score was 396 (Ryder 142) and 1 for 0 wickets.

Peking Wins From Tientsin 3 To 0 In Hockey Game

Peking, Nov. 27.—The Interport Hockey Match between Tientsin and Peking played on the Peking Polo ground on Saturday, was very open and fast, and although both goals were in danger several times neither side scored in the first half.

For the first ten minutes after resuming, Tientsin had all the play but they failed to score.

The Peking team then pulled themselves together and a good run produced the first goal, which was scored by Melville. Peking continued to press hard and Patch and Shone scored two more goals.

Kyoto Americans Win Ball Game From Engineers

Tokio, Nov. 23.—The Americans at Kyoto defeated the faculty baseball team of the Engineering College of Kyoto Imperial University 5 to 3 at the diamond at Doshisha University Saturday afternoon. Although Mikumo for the engineers held the Americans to four hits, poor fielding by his teammates coupled with bunched hits proved his downfall.

Grafton's home run, to deep center scored two of the American scores. Abe, at second for the engineers made a sensational catch throwing the ball to first base in time for a double play. All but two of the 10 resident Americans at Kyoto were in the game. The American line-up was: Shively, catcher; Grafton, pitcher; Gulick, first base; Abe, second base; McSparran, short-stop; Imanaka, third base; Pedley, left field; Curtis, center field, and Goodwin, right field.

Shanghai College Athletic Notes

Last Friday the Shanghai College Middle School football team defeated the Wayland Academy football team on the latter's grounds 6—0. In the afternoon of the same day the Varsity of Shanghai College defeated the First Chekiang Normal School football team 6-0 on the latter's grounds.

On Saturday morning the Shanghai College Middle School team was defeated by a picked team from Wayland, the Chekiang Normal School and three physical directors of Hangchow, by a score of 2-1. On the picked team from Hangchow was one of the former Nanyang stars, who scored both goals for the homesters.

In the afternoon Shanghai College played its first game in the East China Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship series, with the Hangchow Christian College, on the latter's grounds. The final score was 7-1 in favor of Shanghai College.

At the same time the football game was going on the Shanghai College Middle School tennis team defeated picked players from Hangchow in three matches; Shanghai College Middle School winning all three matches, losing only one set.

On the evening of November 26th a Y. M. C. A. team, which had on it two of the former crack Y.M.C.A. basketball team, was defeated by a team picked from the Shanghai College basketball players, 32-27.

This coming Saturday the Shanghai College football team will play the National Southeastern University on the Shanghai College field.

French Football Is Now Untaxed

Football matches in France henceforth will not come under the heading of entertainments, but within the category of "physical and military education," French courts have ruled.

Hitherto gate receipts of football matches have been uniformly subjected to the so-called poor-tax on entertainments.

A test case, however, has just been made by the manager of the Toulous club, who refused to turn in the usual ten percent to the state, and the court has decided that football was immune from the tax.

Jess Willard Strikes Oil; He Is Now A Millionaire

Tho Still Is Expected To Seek A Return Fight With Dempsey

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 30.—Jess Willard has struck oil. The former world's heavyweight champion is "sitting on top of the world," with $2,000,000 to his credit. Jess has been wild-catting around here for a year. Now he has brought in a gusher.

"In justice to my oil interests," the big scrapper said today in answer to questions concerning his reported return match with Jack Dempsey, "I cannot at this time give any consideration to sports."

So now in the opinion of Sylvester Forrester, John B. Grieve and other millionaire oil producers, if Jess ever again enters the ring to fight Dempsey something other than financial consideration will influence him to do so.

"Bringing in this gusher has undoubtedly enriched Willard by $2,000,000," said Forrester today. "That is more money than the combined purses of all the heavyweight championships in history. Additional wells he is now drilling will enhance his holdings several times more."

Jack Jenkins, a Texas operator and friend of Williard's, called on him recently to renew acquaintance. After visiting for a while Willard gave him forty acres close to his gusher.

"Just for old time's sake," said the ex-champion.

Tex Rickard, who plans to stage a Willard-Dempsey fight next July, left yesterday morning for Chicago. John Dorgan, Rickard's publicity manager, reported that Rickard had not heard of Willard's oil strike.

"I don't believe it is a question of money with Jess," said Dorgan, "but he wants to beat Dempsy. The big fellow is anxious to show his friends that he can do much better than he did at Toledo. He wants to wipe out that defeat even if he doesn't get a cent for his end."

HEILMANN AND HORNSBY WIN BIG LEAGUE HONORS

Former's Lead Only Slight; Hornsby Has Good Margin In National League

Harry Heilmann, Detroit's slugging outfielder, won the 1921 batting championship in the American League by .0003 of a point, according to unofficial figures.

Heilmann's boss, Manager Ty Cobb, gave him a merry chase for the title. They were virtually tied when the season closed, with .390 each, but the figures when carried out to four percentage points gave Heilmann .3904 and Cobb .3901. Ruth of New York was third with .377; Eisler, St. Louis, last year's champion, fourth, .731, and Speaker, Cleveland, fifth.

Heilmann participated in 140 games, was at bat 602 times, scored 113 runs and made 235 hits. A year ago he ranked twenty-third in the batting list with .309.

Cobb, who last year was the ninth ranking American League batsman, with an average of .385, was in 21 less games than his rival outfielder this season. He batted 505 times, crossed the plate 122 times and hit safely 197 times.

Rogers Hornsby, St. Louis Cardinals' star second baseman, topped the National League batters with .398, the unofficial averages showed. This figure is an increase of 28 points over his total last year, when he also was the senior organisation's champion hitter. Roush, Cincinnati, was second this year with .352; Cruise, Boston, third, .349; McHenry, St. Louis, fourth, .348, and Meusel, New York, fifth, .343.

ULSTER SHIES AT GOVT. PROPOSALS

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—At the opening of the Ulster Parliament at Belfast today, the Premier, Sir James Craig, said that the Government's proposals for an Irish settlement were utterly impossible.

Ulster refused to enter an All-Ireland Parliament in the present conditions but was prepared to explore other avenues in a conference. He declared that Sinn Fein must say by December 6 whether they would continue to work for a settlement or the negotiations would be broken off.

The British Government must understand finally that this was the determination of the whole people of Ulster, who refused to be intimidated or coerced, no matter what action they might take. Sir James Craig stated that owing to Sinn Fein outrages the Cabinet had authorised the enrolment of a special constabulary of 5,700 men. The Government of North Ireland was determined to protect life and property regardless of cost.

NEW PROPOSALS

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—Instead of the threatened deadlock, the Irish situation entered a new phase by a meeting today between the Sinn Feiners and the Premier at which, it is understood, a totally new set of proposals were considered.

HAZARDS NO PREDICTION

(Special To The China Press)

Turnridge Wells, Eng. Nov. 29.—Lord Chancellor Birkenhead in a speech today said it was impossible to predict the solution of the Irish question and stated that the officers of the British government made the Sinn Fein promise that with one or two exceptions Ireland will be placed in the same position as Canada.

The London newspapers are raising a chorus of vigorous protest against the renewal of warfare in Ireland if the negotiations fail.

WANT KING TO AID

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger-China Press Exclusive Service)

London, Nov. 28.—The government is considering the matter of requesting the King to intervene in the deadlock over Ireland and appeal to Ulster to make concessions and agree to a United Ireland Parliament which would be acceptable to Sinn Fein.

Sir James Craig, Ulster spokesman, has shown little signs of willingness to agree to a compromise despite the breakdown in negotiations, and the onus is now squarely placed on Ulster's shoulders.

Case Against Giesel Settled Out Of Court

The liquor larceny charge brought against Mr. Albert Giesel, 62 Kiangse Road, by Mr. A. Bena, former chairman of the Italian Chamber of Commerce—a case which was featured by linguistic collision between attorneys P. M. Linebarger and G. D. Musso at its first hearing last Saturday—was withdrawn in the Mixed Court yesterday.

The case came before Italian Assessor Ferrajolo and Magistrate Tsang and when it was called yesterday Mr. Linebarger, who represented the defendant, did not appear. Mr. Musso announcing that the case had been settled out of court.

The charge was that Mr. Giesel had removed thirteen barrels of wine belonging to the complainant from the godowns of Reids, Ltd. The liquor has been returned.

Tram Conductor Sent To Jail For Injuring Passenger

A tram conductor was sentenced to two weeks' imprisonment by the Mixed Court yesterday for pushing a passenger from a car on the Broadway November 9, causing him injuries which confined him to hospital for some days.

The complainant, a countryman, stated that the conductor demanded his ticket, which was in the possession of a companion, and then thrust him off the footboard while the car was in motion.

The conductor denied the allegation, declaring that the passenger fell from the car.

FUKIEN SENDS LEGATE

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 27.—It is reported in military quarters that the Tuchun of Fukien, General Li Hou-chi, has sent Colonel Chu to represent him at the Paotingfu Conference. It is stated that Colonel Chu's mission is important.

Fukien is apparently not apprehensive of danger at the hands of Kwangtung, according to the report made to the conference by Colonel Club who states that General Chen Chung-ming has no intention to take offensive measures against any other Province.

The belief that if General Li were commissioned to mediate between the North and General Chen he might be instrumental in bringing about peace is thus strengthened.

The Warwick Co.

In "A Bill of Divorcement," presented at the Lyceum Theater last night, the Warwick Company made another most pleasing impression upon a Shanghai audience.

The play contains some strong dramatic elements, good situations and impelling dialogue and is handsomely set. Space precludes a comprehensive review in this issue, but it should be said that Miss Marjory Clark and Mr. Thorpe Mayne, in the leading roles, handled two difficult parts with admirable effect and that the rest of the cast was in every way adequate.

"A Bill of Divorcement" will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night.

P. And O. Report Shows Profit Of Net Half Million

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—The Peninsular and Oriental Report for the year ending Sept. 30, stated that the net profit was £571,466. of which £100,306 was carried forward. It says that during the first six months of the year steamers were able to do somewhat more than cover expenses but for the last six months this was not the case, as recent voyages had resulted in serious losses, consequently the Directors regret that they cannot recommend a bonus for the past year, but they hope that when wages and costs fall to something like normal and trade revives, that there will again be a fair margin of profit.

NEXT U.S. MAIL DUE HERE DEC. 8 ON N.Y.K. BOAT

Mail is to be dispatched to the United States and Canada from the American Post Office today on the steamer Tenyo Maru of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha and will close at 1 o'clock this afternoon for registered matter and at 2 o'clock for ordinary matter. Students Brought Home From France Condemn Peking

At a meeting of Chinese students recently brought home from France where they had been studying at the expense of the Peking government, held yesterday afternoon at the Ling Nan Lou, the action of the government in terminating the study of the men was classified as unlawful, and proposals were passed to work up public sentiment to provide means for their return, and to guarantee that they be permitted to continue their studies abroad without further fear of governmental interference.

The meeting, which was attended, aside from the students by some 20 Chinese newspapermen who had been especially invited to propagate their grievance, was presided over by Mr. T. H. Yu. The latter in a short address stigmatised the enforced return of the students as "an unlawful act" on the part of the Peking government.

The following resolutions were passed:

1.—To request the public to demand that the Peking government explain the need for taking the students away from their studies.

2.—To request the public to secure funds from the different provincial governments to return the students to France and to maintain them while at school there.

3—To request the public to provide hotel accommodations while waiting the outcome of their protesting campaign, or to provide suitable positions for those competent to work, or funds for transportation for those students who wish to return to their homes.

COTTON MARKET GOOD

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—The Financial Times in its Manchester cotton report says that the market is hopeful. Evidence is accumulating that India will buy soon, although business with India at present does not represent even the fringe of the normal demand.

China is very quiet, but the smaller Far Eastern markets, such as Java and Singapore, are making varied purchases. The home trade is showing more life. Although there is to be no organised 50 percent short-time working, there must be a cut fully equivalent to that, unless the demand improves greatly and immediately.

FIGHTS GALORE SLATED FOR THE SOVIET CONGRESS

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 29.—The Soviet Government appears to attach very great importance to the forthcoming Pan-Russian Soviet Congress, which has been called for December 20.

The official program of the Conference comprises the problems of Soviet policy, in the first place that of the new economic policy of Lenin, that is to say of the return of capitalism. It is stated however that the foreign policy of Tchitcherin will be the object of the most violent attacks of the irreconciliables. It is on this ground that the offensive of the Third Internationale will be launched.

According to well-informed circles Lenin proposes to make the first political speech at the Congress, in which he will request the integral acceptance of his program. Once sanctioned by the Congress, this program will be put into execution without delay or compromise with all the brutal energy which characterised the course of action of Lenin.

It is considered at Moscow that the Ninth Soviet Congress will result in all probability in a serous defeat of the extremist opposition.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is particularly a preparation for Infants and Children made agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach and pleasant in its action. It has been in use for over thirty years and has always been one of the most highly esteemed of all cathartic preparations. It has one great advantage over other preparations of its kind in that while it opens the organs readily and completely, it does not have a tendency to produce subsequent constipation so much to be dreaded.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

Save the Babies.

Infantry mortality is something frightful. We can hardly realise that of all the children born in ivilised countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one quarter die before they reach one year, thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

Our Portrait is of Miss FLORRIE ORGAN, of 100, Clark Street, Ladywood, Birmingham, England, whose father writes:

"My daughter Florrie was suffering with a very bad head covered with Sores and Eruptions, and in fact her mother was afraid to comb her hair. She had been under several doctors, but all to no purpose, so I began to think she would never get well again and lose all her hair. As your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' cured me of Glandular Swellings in the Neck some years ago, and so averted my having to undergo an operation, I decided to give 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a fair trial in the case of my daughter, and I am pleased to say it effected a wonderful cure in just over a fortnight."

SUFFERERS from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realise that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief; to be sure of complete and lasting benefit the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter the root cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes and expels the impurities; that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

CAN PAY AND CAN NOT SAY FRENCH OF THE GERMANS

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 29.—The Deputy Director of Commercial Affairs has made the following statement which is published in the Excelsior:

"I think that the Germans can face approaching maturities. Germany has promised to carry out the ultimatum but she has also promised to show in carrying it out, that it cannot be carried out. Financially it is true that there are 40 milliards of gold in the world and it is therefore impossible to find 132 milliards of gold marks to pay reparations, but from the economic point of view it is different.

"It was therefore a question for Germany or creating confusion in world opinion between the financial impossibility and the economic possibility of payment. Germany found the very simple means of proving her incapability by closing the German market and making impossible all sales abroad. By stages she brought the mark to such a low level that it must lose all power of purchase in France, America and Britain.

"The rapid depreciation of paper currency created a phenomenon, which had never before been observed, in which depreciated money preserved in the interior of the country a purchasing power higher than any possible purchasing power abroad.

"There resulted from this that wages, transport, rents and generally those things necessary to life, are less dear in Germany than anywhere else. In Germany where the industries are producing at a much lower price than in America or Britain, the fall of the mark has therefore greatly favored German producers.

"This fall was determined by a constant escape of German capital abroad. Not for a moment did the German Government seriously endeavor to prevent the fall of the mark. At Brussels the German financial experts presented to the Allied experts a diagram, proving that the curves of all the exchanges were noticeably parallel to those of the mark."

M. Seydoux then recalled that the German Budget comprised heavy taxes which gave bad returns. These taxes had been made still heavier and gave a still worse return. As to the indirect taxes, which gave a surer return, everyone knew that the German Government had neglected these.

Germany had developed her railways, reconstituted her merchant marine, paid the interest on previous loans and given satisfaction to the demands of the political parties by the simplest of proceedings, by the issue of notes without reserves or control.

It was evident that a time would come when the mark would be near zero in such conditions of management. M. Seydoux refuted the argument that, if Germany interrupted her payments under the head of reparations, the mark would rise at once. He said that was no solution. It would be simple if the unanimous agreement and firm will of the Allies insisted that Germany should undertake financial and fiscal reforms and bring back to the country her money from abroad.

Tsingtao College Planned By Japan

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 26.—Japan is now turning her attention to education in the Province of Shantung, according to Chinese sources, and is planning the foundation of a university at Tsingtao, to give instruction in arts, commerce, agriculture, and pure science. It is said that the plan is being strongly promoted in Japan.

The University is expected to open next April, with a full university course of three years, though at the beginning only one hundred students will be admitted to the various departments. These students, the reports say, will be all Chinese, and that this is an effort on the part of Japan to win the friendship of the Chinese people.

The University, it is reported, will be housed upon the premises of the former German-Chinese school. No tuition will be charged, and text books will be supplied free. The promoters are now active soliciting the support of Japanese in China.

ULSTER SHIES AT GOVT. PROPOSALS

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—At the opening of the Ulster Parliament at Belfast today, the Premier, Sir James Craig, said that the Government's proposals for an Irish settlement were utterly impossible.

Ulster refused to enter an All-Ireland Parliament in the present conditions but was prepared to explore other avenues in a conference. He declared that Sinn Fein must say by December 6 whether they would continue to work for a settlement or the negotiations would be broken off.

The British Government must understand finally that this was the determination of the whole people of Ulster, who refused to be intimidated or coerced, no matter what action they might take. Sir James Craig stated that owing to Sinn Fein outrages the Cabinet had authorised the enrolment of a special constabulary of 5,700 men. The Government of North Ireland was determined to protect life and property regardless of cost.

NEW PROPOSALS

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—Instead of the threatened deadlock, the Irish situation entered a new phase by a meeting today between the Sinn Feiners and the Premier at which, it is understood, a totally new set of proposals were considered.

HAZARDS NO PREDICTION

(Special To The China Press)

Turnridge Wells, Eng. Nov. 29.—Lord Chancellor Birkenhead in a speech today said it was impossible to predict the solution of the Irish question and stated that the officers of the British government made the Sinn Fein promise that with one or two exceptions Ireland will be placed in the same position as Canada.

The London newspapers are raising a chorus of vigorous protest against the renewal of warfare in Ireland if the negotiations fail.

WANT KING TO AID

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger-China Press Exclusive Service)

London, Nov. 28.—The government is considering the matter of requesting the King to intervene in the deadlock over Ireland and appeal to Ulster to make concessions and agree to a United Ireland Parliament which would be acceptable to Sinn Fein.

Sir James Craig, Ulster spokesman, has shown little signs of willingness to agree to a compromise despite the breakdown in negotiations, and the onus is now squarely placed on Ulster's shoulders.

JAPANESE ARRIVE

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—The Japanese Naval Squadron has arrived at Sheerness.

Case Against Giesel Settled Out Of Court

The liquor larceny charge brought against Mr. Albert Giesel, 62 Kiangse Road, by Mr. A. Bena, former chairman of the Italian Chamber of Commerce—a case which was featured by linguistic collision between attorneys P. M. Linebarger and G. D. Musso at its first hearing last Saturday—was withdrawn in the Mixed Court yesterday.

The case came before Italian Assessor Ferrajolo and Magistrate Tsang and when it was called yesterday Mr. Linebarger, who represented the defendant, did not appear. Mr. Musso announcing that the case had been settled out of court.

The charge was that Mr. Giesel had removed thirteen barrels of wine belonging to the complainant from the godowns of Reids, Ltd. The liquor has been returned.

Tram Conductor Sent To Jail For Injuring Passenger

A tram conductor was sentenced to two weeks' imprisonment by the Mixed Court yesterday for pushing a passenger from a car on the Broadway November 9, causing him injuries which confined him to hospital for some days.

The complainant, a countryman, stated that the conductor demanded his ticket, which was in the possession of a companion, and then thrust him off the footboard while the car was in motion.

The conductor denied the allegation, declaring that the passenger fell from the car.

FUKIEN SENDS LEGATE

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 27.—It is reported in military quarters that the Tuchun of Fukien, General Li Hou-chi, has sent Colonel Chu to represent him at the Paotingfu Conference. It is stated that Colonel Chu's mission is important.

Fukien is apparently not apprehensive of danger at the hands of Kwangtung, according to the report made to the conference by Colonel Club who states that General Chen Chung-ming has no intention to take offensive measures against any other Province.

The belief that if General Li were commissioned to mediate between the North and General Chen he might be instrumental in bringing about peace is thus strengthened.

FIRE LOSS MILLIONS

(Special To The China Press)

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 26.—Fire swept the business district of Augusta today and before it could be checked caused damage estimated at $2,000,000.

The Warwick Co.

In "A Bill of Divorcement," presented at the Lyceum Theater last night, the Warwick Company made another most pleasing impression upon a Shanghai audience.

The play contains some strong dramatic elements, good situations and impelling dialogue and is handsomely set. Space precludes a comprehensive review in this issue, but it should be said that Miss Marjory Clark and Mr. Thorpe Mayne, in the leading roles, handled two difficult parts with admirable effect and that the rest of the cast was in every way adequate.

"A Bill of Divorcement" will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night.

P. And O. Report Shows Profit Of Net Half Million

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—The Peninsular and Oriental Report for the year ending Sept. 30, stated that the net profit was £571,466. of which £100,306 was carried forward. It says that during the first six months of the year steamers were able to do somewhat more than cover expenses but for the last six months this was not the case, as recent voyages had resulted in serious losses, consequently the Directors regret that they cannot recommend a bonus for the past year, but they hope that when wages and costs fall to something like normal and trade revives, that there will again be a fair margin of profit.

NEXT U.S. MAIL DUE HERE DEC. 8 ON N.Y.K. BOAT

Mail is to be dispatched to the United States and Canada from the American Post Office today on the steamer Tenyo Maru of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha and will close at 1 o'clock this afternoon for registered matter and at 2 o'clock for ordinary matter. The Tenyo Maru sails for San Francisco by way of Japanese ports and Honolulu and is due to arrive at the California port on Christmas day.

The tender with incoming passengers from the Tenyo Maru is expected at the Customs Jetty about 9:30 o'clock this morning and the tender with outbound passengers and mails will leave the jetty at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Following the Tenyo Maru, the next outbound mail to America will go on the C.P.O.S. Liner Empress of Russia, sailing December 10 and arriving at Vancouver, B.C. on December 26. The Golden State of the Pacific Mail is to sail for San Francisco by way of Japanese ports and Honolulu on December 10 and is due to arrive in San Francisco December 29.

The Empire State of the Pacific Mail sails for San Francisco on December 12.

INCOMING MAILS

The next mail from America will arrive on the N.Y.K. liner Kashima Maru which sailed from Seattle on November 13 and is due here on December 8. The Silver State of the Admiral Line which sailed from Seattle on November 26 is due here on December 13. The C.P.O.S. steamer Manteagle which sailed from Vancouver, B.C. on November 28 is due to arrive here on December 21.

In addition to the foregoing incoming mails it is expected that a mail consignment trans-shipped in Japan from California and Honolulu will arrive about December 20.

Chartered Bank Head Dies Rich

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—Mr. J. H. Gwyther, the late Chairman of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, has left £144,000.

Students Brought Home From France Condemn Peking

At a meeting of Chinese students recently brought home from France where they had been studying at the expense of the Peking government, held yesterday afternoon at the Ling Nan Lou, the action of the government in terminating the study of the men was classified as unlawful, and proposals were passed to work up public sentiment to provide means for their return, and to guarantee that they be permitted to continue their studies abroad without further fear of governmental interference.

The meeting, which was attended, aside from the students by some 20 Chinese newspapermen who had been especially invited to propagate their grievance, was presided over by Mr. T. H. Yu. The latter in a short address stigmatised the enforced return of the students as "an unlawful act" on the part of the Peking government.

The following resolutions were passed:

1.—To request the public to demand that the Peking government explain the need for taking the students away from their studies.

2.—To request the public to secure funds from the different provincial governments to return the students to France and to maintain them while at school there.

3—To request the public to provide hotel accommodations while waiting the outcome of their protesting campaign, or to provide suitable positions for those competent to work, or funds for transportation for those students who wish to return to their homes.

COTTON MARKET GOOD

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—The Financial Times in its Manchester cotton report says that the market is hopeful. Evidence is accumulating that India will buy soon, although business with India at present does not represent even the fringe of the normal demand.

China is very quiet, but the smaller Far Eastern markets, such as Java and Singapore, are making varied purchases. The home trade is showing more life. Although there is to be no organised 50 percent short-time working, there must be a cut fully equivalent to that, unless the demand improves greatly and immediately.

FIGHTS GALORE SLATED FOR THE SOVIET CONGRESS

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 29.—The Soviet Government appears to attach very great importance to the forthcoming Pan-Russian Soviet Congress, which has been called for December 20.

The official program of the Conference comprises the problems of Soviet policy, in the first place that of the new economic policy of Lenin, that is to say of the return of capitalism. It is stated however that the foreign policy of Tchitcherin will be the object of the most violent attacks of the irreconcilables. It is on this ground that the offensive of the Third Internationale will be launched.

According to well-informed circles Lenin proposes to make the first political speech at the Congress, in which he will request the integral acceptance of his program. Once sanctioned by the Congress, this program will be put into execution without delay or compromise with all the brutal energy which characterised the course of action of Lenin.

It is considered at Moscow that the Ninth Soviet Congress will result in all probability in a serous defeat of the extremist opposition.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is particularly a preparation for Infants and Children made agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach and pleasant in its action. It has been in use for over thirty years and has always been one of the most highly esteemed of all cathartic preparations. It has one great advantage over other preparations of its kind in that while it opens the organs readily and completely, it does not have a tendency to produce subsequent constipation so much to be dreaded.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

Save the Babies.

Infantry mortality is something frightful. We can hardly realise that of all the children born in ivilised countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one quarter die before they reach one year, thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinct rer and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain mor e less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

"Began to think she would never get well."

Our Portrait is of Miss FLORRIE ORGAN, of 100, Clark Street, Ladywood, Birmingham, England, whose father writes:

"My daughter Florrie was suffering with a very bad head covered with Sores and Eruptions, and in fact her mother was afraid to comb her hair. She had been under several doctors, but all to no purpose, so I began to think she would never get well again and lose all her hair. As your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' cured me of Glandular Swellings in the Neck some years ago, and so averted my having to undergo an operation, I decided to give 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a fair trial in the case of my daughter, and I am pleased to say it effected a wonderful cure in just over a fortnight."

SUFFERERS from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realise that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief; to be sure of complete and lasting benefit the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter the root cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes and expels the impurities; that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

CAN PAY AND CAN NOT SAY FRENCH OF THE GERMANS

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 29.—The Deputy Director of Commercial Affairs has made the following statement which is published in the Excelsior:

"I think that the Germans can face approaching maturities. Germany has promised to carry out the ultimatum but she has also promised to show in carrying it out, that it cannot be carried out. Financially it is true that there are 40 milliards of gold in the world and it is therefore impossible to find 132 milliards of gold marks to pay reparations, but from the economic point of view it is different.

"It was therefore a question for Germany or creating confusion in world opinion between the financial impossibility and the economic possibility of payment. Germany found the very simple means of proving her incapability by closing the German market and making impossible all sales abroad. By stages she brought the mark to such a low level that it must lose all power of purchase in France, America and Britain.

"The rapid depreciation of paper currency created a phenomenon, which had never before been observed, in which depreciated money preserved in the interior of the country a purchasing power higher than any possible purchasing power abroad.

"There resulted from this that wages, transport, rents and generally those things necessary to life, are less dear in Germany than anywhere else. In Germany where the industries are producing at a much lower price than in America or Britain, the fall of the mark has therefore greatly favored German producers.

"This fall was determined by a constant escape of German capital abroad. Not for a moment did the German Government seriously endeavor to prevent the fall of the mark. At Brussels the German financial experts presented to the Allied experts a diagram, proving that the curves of all the exchanges were noticeably parallel to those of the mark."

M. Seydoux then recalled that the German Budget comprised heavy taxes which gave bad returns. These taxes had been made still heavier and gave a still worse return. As to the indirect taxes, which gave a surer return, everyone knew that the German Government had neglected these.

Germany had developed her railways, reconstituted her merchant marine, paid the interest on previous loans and given satisfaction to the demands of the political parties by the simplest of proceedings, by the issue of notes without reserves or control.

It was evident that a time would come when the mark would be near zero in such conditions of management. M. Seydoux refuted the argument that, if Germany interrupted her payments under the head of reparations, the mark would rise at once. He said that was no solution. It would be simple if the unanimous agreement and firm will of the Allies insisted that Germany should undertake financial and fiscal reforms and bring back to the country her money from abroad.

U. S. Citizens Must Have Business Or Can't Go To Russia

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 26.—The American Legation has issued the following instructions to the various consular officials in China, with regard to the entrance of American citizens into Russia or Siberia; it is now necessary to have one's case reviewed by the department before permission can be obtained:

"Applications should be made for the amendment of their passports by all persons desiring to enter into Russia and Siberia. They should submit evidence that their trip is necessary, and their applications are to be referred to the Department for decision."

China To Study Labor In Europe

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 27.—The Ministry of the Interior is said to have sent Mr. Cheng Kuo-hsian, a member of its staff, to go to Europe and investigate labor conditions in various countries, as a preliminary to the drafting of a set of regulations regarding labor in China.

Tsingtao College Planned By Japan

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 26.—Japan is now turning her attention to education in the Province of Shantung, according to Chinese sources, and is planning the foundation of a university at Tsingtao, to give instruction in arts, commerce, agriculture, and pure science. It is said that the plan is being strongly promoted in Japan.

The University is expected to open next April, with a full university course of three years, though at the beginning only one hundred students will be admitted to the various departments. These students, the reports say, will be all Chinese, and that this is an effort on the part of Japan to win the friendship of the Chinese people.

The University, it is reported, will be housed upon the premises of the former German-Chinese school. No tuition will be charged, and text books will be supplied free. The promoters are now active soliciting the support of Japanese in China.

November 30, 1921

Spot bar silver was down 1-8d. and forward 1-4d. in London yesterday. The New York price declined to 67¼ cents and the London-New York cross rate improved to 399½.

The only changes in the official quotations here today were a rise in the Rupee rate to 287½ and a drop in the Franc rate to 1100.

The market at the opening was on the easy side, business in Sterling for December at one time being done as low as 3/9¼ and for Gold Dollars at 75½.

Chinese and some banks bought a fair amount of Sterling at 3-9⅜ for December and Gold Dollars at 75¾. However, late in the morning, rates firmed up considerably, and the market closed steady with sellers of Sterling at 3-9½ for December, 3-8¾ for January and 3-8¼ for February.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the close at 75¾ for December and 74¾ for January. London advises their market as being steady and quiet, while New York give their market as firm owing to limited supplies.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their exchange circular for week ending yesterday.

Exchange: The London price of silver went to 37⅝d. during the week, the last quotation 37⅝d. is ⅜d. lower than last week.

Our rate for T/T on London followed silver to 3/8d., but with demand for "end of the month" money, and with a certain amount of silk paper on the market recovered to 3/10d. A good business has been done between Banks arranging forward funds and we close steady for early deliveries, easy forward.

Our stocks of Silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver, Tls. 28,969,000, an increase of Tls. 1,912,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars, $21,590,000, an increase of $560,000.

Estimated value in Tls. 44,513,000 as against Tls. 53,000,000 held at this time last year.

Rubber Trade In China

China's imports of india rubber manufactures amount in value annually to nearly £500,000. Although since the Armistice Great Britain has been improving her position in this market, she is outclassed not merely by Japan, which holds nearly one-half the trade, but also by the United States. Japan's share has, however, suffered a decline of about 30 percent since 1919.

A demand for motor tyres is growing slowly but surely in Shanghai and district, while pneumatics for the ricshaws are also in request. The latter trade is well covered by the Japanese branch factory of a well-known British company. Straight side cord fabric tyres are now preferred by the motor trade.

While the market for rubber boots and overshoes is restricted and should be approached cautiously on account also of the need to study the smaller sizes required, there is scope for increasing the sale of rubber soles and heels. The growth of industry in China makes certain manufacturing centers promising markets for belting, hose, packing, etc.

As regards waterproof clothing in China, it is suggested that more trade could be done by importing goods in the piece than by trying to sell the same kind of garment as is bought by the European. The former plan would permit the completed garment to be made up to suit Chinese tastes. Special care in manufacture and finish is needed owing to the extremes of heat and moisture which are experienced in China, British firms are doing a growing business in gloves, hotwater bottles, etc.

Obituary

M. M. DENEGRI

The funeral of Mr. M. M. Denegri, who was steam filature expert of the firm of Messrs. Reiss and Company and who died suddenly Tuesday night from an attack of heart failure at his home No. 19 Kiaochow Road, is to take place tomorrow afternoon at the Bubbling Well Cemetery following a service at St. Joseph's Church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Denegri was 49 years old at the time of his death and had been a resident of China for the past 26 years.

Mario Massimo Denegri was born at Novi Ligure, Italy, in August, 1872. He came to China in May, 1895, as Sub-Manager of the Lun Hwa Silk Filature, and in 1898 was appointed manager of the "China Steam Filature" at Soochow, later acting in the same capacity for the Tung Yik Filature, Shanghai, where he founded the "M.D." Chop.

Two years ago, while retaining his relations with the Tung Yik Filature, he joined Messrs. Reiss and Co. as the steam filature expert of the firm.

Mr. Denegri was a well-known and popular figure in both the International and French Settlements, being a member of numerous Clubs, including the Shanghai Club, French Club, Race Club, Golf Club, and enjoying the friendship and respect of a very wide circle.

He leaves a widow, a step-son and two step-daughters.

STRENUOUS AMERICANS

And The Price They Pay.

Americans are proud of being a strenuous people, but as a result of overwork, hurried meals and insufficient rest many of them suffer from maladies due to vitiated blood and disordered nerves.

As a remedy in such cases Dr. Williams' pink pills, the famous blood and nerve tonic, enjoy an enormous popularity in all parts of America. Here is the description given by Mr. A. F. Ballman, a bank teller who lives at 621 Euclid Avenue, Los Angelos, Calif., of how the pills cured him of headaches and other troubles due to over-worked nerves.

"I had a nervous breakdown several years ago from which I never fully recovered," says Mr. Ballman. "I was irritable and nervous, and suffered from frequent headaches that were very severe and sometimes of long duration. My sleep was broken and unrestful.

"Through reading about Dr. Williams' pink pills I was led to try these pills. There was an improvement after I had taken half a bottle of them. Then gradually my nerves regained their strength, the headaches became less severe and less frequent, and now I sleep soundly and feel better than I have for a very long time."

Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people tone up the entire system, make the blood rich and red, drive away that unnatural tired feeling. Your own druggist sells them, or you can obtain them direct by mail, $1.50 the bottle, $8 for 6 bottles, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Rathenau Confers In London; Premier Refases Audience

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—It transpires that Dr. Rathenau will see Sir Robert Kindersley today. It is understood that he will not be received by the Premier but will possibly be received by Sir Robert Horne.

The nature of his conversation with Sir Robert Kindersley is summed up as referring to financial topics generally. It is noted that Sir John Bradbury, the chief delegate on the Reparations Commission, has arrived in London from Berlin.

It appears that Herr Simon, who is accompanying Dr. Rathenau, is not the ex-Foreign Minister.

Charge Two Suspects In Police Murder Case

Two of the four Chinese believed to have been concerned in the double murder at 1842 Sinza Road on October 9, when a Chinese police sergeant and his wife were shot to death, were charged in the Mixed Court yesterday and were remanded for a special hearing.

East China Christian Educational Ass'n. Meeting January 23

The next annual meeting of the East China Christian Educational Association will be held on January 23, 24 and 25, 1922, before China New Year rather than after. It is hoped that this will result in a larger attendance than in recent years, when the annual meeting has been held after China New Year. The meeting will open Monday noon and continue until Wednesday evening.

Sectional programs will be given a place, all of Tuesday being allocated to the three divisions of the Association, viz., College, Middle School, and Primary School, sections. At the general programs, addresses will be given by Dr. Roxby and Dr. Padelford, members of the Educational Commission, these general programs also providing for discussions on subjects of interest to all educators.

Municipal Staff Changes

Changes in the Municipal Staff given in extracts from the order books for the week ending Saturday, November 26 are as follows:

Fire Brigade.—Mr. E. F. Cardwell, Sub-Officer on probation, is permitted to terminate his service on November 21.

Police Force.—The following Japanese Constables are permitted to terminate their service:

No. 10 S. Makita
No. 13 T. Tanokura
No. 15 K. Sakurai
No. 26 M. Mori
No. 28 K. Kato

Japanese Sergeant No. 1 Fumio Yoshida is promoted to be Sub-Inspector from November 1.

Japanese Constables No. 11 Fokujiro Hirai and No. 27, Hideji Yamashita are promoted to be Sergeants with effect from November 1.

Health Department.—Nurse A. Reid is appointed Acting Housekeeper in the Victoria Nursing Home from June 15, 1921.

Miss H. Goriashina, Probationer Nurse, and Nurse K. Kushiro are permitted to terminate their service on December 10 and November 30, respectively.

Electricity Department.—The appointment of Mr. H. Dayton, Boiler House Assistant, is confirmed under agreement from January 17, 1921.

The appointment of Mr. H. H. Winburg, Motor Mechanic, is confirmed under agreement from April 27.

Mr. S. S. Cook is appointed Clerical Assistant on probation from November 21.

Educational Department.—Long leave is granted to Mr. H. L. Pardel, Language Master in the Public School for Boys, from April 10, 1922.

Convict Constable Of Illegal Arrest Of Italian Subject

The Chinese police constable against whom the Chevalier A. del Piano brought charges of illegal arrest and assault a week ago was sentenced to two months' imprisonment by Italian Assessor Ferrajolo and Magistrate Tsang in the Mixed Court yesterday, the court, however, suspending sentence and expressing itself as attaching the greater part of the responsibility upon the policeman's superiors.

The decision is regarded as indicative of a suit for damages against the Council.

The testimony taken in the case was to the effect that the constable was instructed to watch for opium and the complainant stated that when he left his home on Seward Road on the morning of November 19 he was stopped and searched by the defendant, Mr. R. C. Faithful, police legal adviser, admitted the search and a technical assault and said that he was instructed to offer apologies. Mr. G. D. Musso, appearing for the complainant, after cross-examining the defendant launched into a bitter denunciation of the employment of such men on the force, holding that no man should occupy such a public post who did not know that a foreigner could not be arrested on a Mixed Court warrant, but only a warrant issued by his consular officials. He wishes to insure that Italian subjects should not be liable to anything of this sort.

The court's decision read that in view of the fact that the defendant acted in order to carry out the instructions received from his inspector, "to whom a great part of the responsibility for what happened is due," sentence should be suspended.

NAVY 'Y' TO HAVE BUSY MONTH OF SOCIAL ACTIVITY

The Navy Y.M.C.A. social calendar for December promises a lively month for the sailors in port. The Central committee at a dinner held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lina Willis of the Shanghai Y.W.C.A. drew up the following list of entertainment features:

The Japanese In Fukien
By Orrin Keith

NOTE: This is the second article in the series which Mr. Keith is now writing on the Southern Constitutionalist Cause. The third will appear tomorrow:

So much is the Japanese sphere of influence in Fukien talked of in the papers which are opposed to Japan's aggressive policy on the Asian mainland, that one rather expects as a matter of course to find Foochow a second Mukden with little brown soldiers in profusion and all of the strategic points in the military and economic situation in the hands of representatives of His Imperial Majesty.

But Foochow presents no such appearance. There are very few Japanese to be seen in the city and none in uniform. Almost no Japanese are to be found outside the cities of Foochow and Amoy. Such as there are in the province are reported to be merely merchants engaged in business in the same way as Americans, English or French. There is certainly no outward appearance of Japanese aggression in Fukien Province.

There are, however, many Japanese citizens in Fukien. They are Formosan Chinese who have come over to the mainland in search of fortune and are none too scrupulous as to the manner in which their riches come to them. These men disobey the local regulations and defy the local authorities and when they get into difficulties fall back upon their Japanese citizenship and call upon the Japanese Consul for help.

That there has been an effort in the past to take advantage of this situation as an excuse for the installation of Japanese police boxes and other methods of extending Japanese control is hardly to be disputed. For the present, however, all such efforts seem to have ceased and nothing is heard locally of Japanese aggression since the boycott of two years ago. The Japanese Consul apparently gives no more support to this rowdy element than is legally required and joins the local officials and the representatives of other countries in wishing the whole Formosan crew in Formosa or elsewhere.

Nonetheless those who are most ready to see Japanese aggression report the presence at the Japanese Consulate of an unusually large number of constables, twelve in all. This they feel is a much greater number than is necessary to serve papers and attend to the constable's duties where the population is so small. These men are not in uniform as a rule but are to be seen daily going to various parts of the city, apparently upon tours of investigation, and always returning at nightfall with their reports. To the Chinese these men are simply Japanese spies making a very complete survey of the city of Foochow.

The general situation is similar at Amoy. There are more Japanese to be seen than at Foochow and there is also a large number of Formosan Chinese. In the city itself there is no evidence of aggression, unless we are to consider a few unnecessary constables as such evidence.

The one piece of evidence of present day Japanese aggression in Fukien, however, is to be found near Amoy. At the mouth of the Pei Chi, or Dragon River, on which Amoy is situated, is the Island of Quemoy. It is neither large nor populous. Nor has it any valuable mineral or other deposits. It has not even a harbor where small boats can find shelter. Yet to this island, according to the Chinese authorities, the Japanese have sent agents provocateurs to stir up trouble and make an excuse for the demand that Japan be allowed to station police there.

The underlying motive for this activity is alleged to be military. Amoy lies directly opposite Formosa and possesses a harbor which not only claims to be the most beautiful on the China coast but is excellent as well from a practical point of view. Japan has more than once shown a very firm determination not to have any other nation get a foothold upon the Fukien coast and her actions have given rise to repeated accusations that she would make the province even more than a sphere of influence.

Quemoy, although without economic value, could be so fortified as to command the entrance to Amoy harbor and the Chinese assert that such fortification is the ultimate aim of the Japanese and the reason for the recent disturbances upon the island. The matter has hardly gone far enough for a disinterested observer to determine the probable truth of this allegation. On the other hand, in the face of Japan's record for aggression in China, it would be rash to say that the allegation is wholly without foundation. Particularly is this the case when it is impossible to name any other reason for continued Japanese activities upon what is practically a barren island. The burden of proof in respect to her own justification seems to be upon Japan.

Canton Would Set Chosen Free

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Nov. 28.—Chang Ching-shun, M. P. of the Southern Government, after obtaining approval from ten members of Parliament, has introduced to the extraordinary Parliament a bill for the independence of Chosen. The gist of the bill is:

"In defiance of the Bakan Treaty, Article 1 in which provides that Japan and China will recognise Chosen as a complete independent country, China has devised no counter-measures as regards this matter when eleven years have already elapsed since the annexation of Chosen by Japan, a thing which brings shame upon the Chinese people.

"The questions respecting Manchuria, Mongolia, and Shantung as well as the twenty-one demands are all those that have come of Japan's intention to annex China in the same manner as she did towards Chosen. The Sino-Korean Society has now been organised and the Washington Conference held and the time has come when the Powers have come to show sympathy towards Chosen.

"At such an opportune time as this, that China, who has the relation of interdependence with Chosen, should remain silent, without doing anything for the latter, should be considered as a violation of friendship. We should, therefore, take advantage of this opportunity and proclaim the independence of Chosen by a resolution of the extraordinary Parliament and at the same time despatch a circular telegram to that effect to the Washington Conference as well as all over China."

$2,000,000 Stamp Sale

Commandeered Collection Bequeathed To Germany Sold By French For Huge Sums

The largest postage stamp collection ever gathered together in the world, and the greatest in respect to value that stamp experts believe ever will be made, is now being sold at auction in Paris. It is predicted that, on its final dispersal, a sum equivalent to $2,000,000 will be realised. The French Government is conducting the sale and the money will go into the French Treasury. It is the first time that a nation has ever embarked in the business of conducting a postage stamp auction sale.

It is the Ferrary collection, which has been famous for years in philatelic circles. It represents the work of more than fifty years by Philip la Renotiere von Ferrary. It is estimated that he spent during that time at least $1,500,000, and no price was too high for him to pay for an exceptional rarity. The first portion of this unusual collection was sold in June. It consisted of only 172 lots, and brought a total of 1,099,245 francs.

As the French Government levies a tax of 17½ percent on all auction sales, the bidders, therefore, were required to pay 1,291,612 francs.

The second portion of the collection will be sold now. It comprises 600 lots with some exceptional rarities, and it is expected to realise fully 2,000,000 francs, or practically twice as much as the first sale. Had it not been for the war, this great collection, which contained many stamps of which only a single specimen is known, would have been in Berlin.

Ferrary died at Lausanne, Switzerland, on May 20, 1917, at the age of 67 years, and when his will was opened it was found that his collection had been bequeathed to the Berlin Postal Museum. The stamps, however, were in Paris, the greater portion being in the mansion formerly occupied by the Austrian Embassy, which had been presented to Austria by Ferrary's mother, the Duchesse de Galliera. At her death, Ferrary renounced his claims to the title, and became the adoptive son of an officer in the Austrian Army, Ritter Emmanuel la Renotiere von Kriegsfeld. During his life he preferred to use the simple name of Philip von Ferrary.

When the bequest of Ferrary became known, the French Government promptly commandeered his great collection as alien property, and announced that it would be sold at the close of hostilities. Representatives of the more prominent dealers and private collectors from this country and Europe were present at the first sale, but American bidders obtained very little. The greater part of the best stamps were bought by the wealthy French tobacconist, M. Burras, and Theodore Champion, one of the best known stamp dealers of Paris, was the second largest buyer.

Ferrary had the reputation in philatelic ranks of being a man of mystery. He possessed a large fortune, and, becoming interested in postage stamps at the age of 16, the remainder of his life was devoted to that pursuit. It was more than a hobby with him, it was a business. He employed two able secretaries, one of whom for nearly forty years had charge of the adhesive stamps, and the other looked after the stamped envelopes, wrappers and postcards. Besides thirty clerks.

He had standing orders with all the reliable dealers in every part of the stamp collecting world to send him any great rarity they might discover. As he always paid the price asked without quibble he was a highly desirable customer, and the cream of choice things in postage stamps naturally fell to his lot.

PRECIOUS U. S. STAMPS

Some of his finest United States stamps were acquired from Charles Haviland Mekeel, one of the oldest American dealers. The most valuable specimen Ferrary obtained from him was a hitherto unknown two-cent black St. Louis local stamp issued by the Comstock Express Company, for which £500 was paid, equivalent at the time to $2,435. He also got from Mr. Mekeel some exceedingly rare early Confederate postmasters' stamps, used in most cases for only a few days prior to the appearance of the official Confederate postal issues, and a great collection of United States locals, the majority of which are now practically unobtainable.

Two high records for prices paid for postage stamps at public sale, and so far as is known at private sale, were established at the Ferrary auction last June. One was for a pair of stamps, the celebrated two-cent circular British Guiana issue of 1850, for which M. Burras paid 210,000 francs, equal at the exchange rate to $16,212. With the French Government tax added, these stamps cost him $19,049. With the exchange rate at its normal status, the cost in American currency would be about $40,000.

One of the celebrated "missionary" Hawaiian stamps, 1851, two cents, blue, sold for 156,000 francs, also purchased by M. Burras, equal to a little more than $12,000, and with the tax the actual cost was $14,150. Under normal exchange conditions the value in American money would have been approximately $36,000. This is a sale record for a single stamp.

The high prices paid for these stamps are due not only to the extremely limited number of copies known (many being damaged), but to the fact that the Ferrary specimens were the finest extant. The Hawaiian stamp has been acknowledged the finest specimen of that type and is very lightly postmarked. The British Guiana pair comprise the choicest examples of that issue, of which very few copies are known. To the discriminating collector their value is enhanced from the fact that they are preserved on the original envelope. In speculating on the high bid for this British Guiana pair, Fred J. Melville, the British stamp authority, a few days before the sale predicted that it would doubtless bring "more than 100,000 francs." The winning bid was more than 200,000 francs.

The 81 paras stamps of Moldavia, 1858 (among the rarest European stamps) brought, in American money value, $2,316, and exactly twice that sum was paid for a superb copy of the 2 penny indigo blue Mauritius issue of 1858. An "error" of the same value (the word penny being spelled "pence") brought more than $2,500. It is interesting to note that about forty stamps in the first sale realised 5,000 francs or more apiece. They included, besides the countries already mentioned, early issue of Tuscany, Switzerland, Newfoundland, Cape of Good Hope, Ceylon and Two Sicilies.

Issues from only thirteen stamp-using countries were in the sale, one being Uruguay, the entire collection of that country being offered in one lot, comprising more than 2,000 stamps, with errors and curious varieties. The French dealer Champion outbid a Peruvian collector, getting the lot for 110,000 francs representing, with the tax, about $10,000.

One of the surprising things, to foreign collectors especialy, in the lator sale is that many of the great rarities in the first dispersal are duplicated, thus showing the eagerness of Ferrary to get together as many of the extreme rareties as the dealers could find for him. Among them are copies of the much prized Hawaiian missionary issues, Cape of Good Hope "wood blocks" (triangular stamps), the first British Guiana circular issue, and two copies of the valuable Mauritius "Post Office" issue. These two copies were used together on a letter, and it has been predicted they will bring considerably more than the $19,000 paid in June for the scarce British Guiana pair.

SPEDIGREE IN POSTAGE STAM

These particular Mauritius stamps have an interesting and well established pedigree in philatelic annals. They are known as the "Post Office" issue because those words appear on the sides of the stamps, instead of "Post Paid," as in the regular issue of 1848. The earlier ones appeared in 1847, and for many years collectors believed they were merely errors or varieties of the later issue. The first "Post Office" Mauritius stamps known to collectors were found by a Mme. Borchard of Bordeaux, France, on her husband's correspondence. There are at the present time twenty-six copies of these stamps known, and the Borchard letters contributed thirteen. That was in the early '60s, and Mme. Borchard, finding no places in her stamp album for this supposed variety, exchanged the two stamps which will be sold in Paris this week with another Bordeaux collector for two Uruguayan stamps.

The collection of the young man who received them, Albert Coutures, was sold in 1865 for 3,000 francs to a Bordeaux merchant, and he sold the two Mauritius stamps to a Belgian dealer for 200 francs. In 1865, the Belgian dealer sold them to Judge F. A. Philbrick of England for 500 francs, a little less than $100 at the time. In 1881 Ferrary purchased the entire Philbrick collection for £8,000, a little less than $40,000, regarded as a sensational price. The two stamps are of different values, but are intact on a portion of the original envelope, with the original postmark. One is the 1 penny value vermillion and the other the 2 penny blue. The penny stamp has a slight defect in one corner. There are in the forthcoming sale 110 lots of Mauritius stamps, covering the issues from 1847 to 1859 all being rare.

Another unusual batch of choice stamps are seventy-seven of the scarce Cape of Good Hope "wood blocks" (triangular), issued in 1861. These stamps are crudely engraved and printed, making a sad contrast to the very beautifully engraved triangular Cape of Good Hopes of the original issue. They are a home-made imitation, and were printed to meet a sudden emergency when the old stock had been reduced and an expected new consignment from London failed to arrive. They are of the 1 and 4 penny values, made by a local engraver, Charles Julius Roberts, on wood blocks. There were some errors and the colors (red for the penny and blue for the 4 penny) vary widely in shade. In the Ferrary sale last June an error of the 4 penny, printed in red, sold for $1,310, the actual bid being 17,000 francs. The majority of these wood blocks now obtainable are only in poor condition, so that perfect copies of either value are easily worth $1,000 or more.

There is an interesting story that several years ago a prominent London dealer bought from a man returning from the Cape of Good Hope a bag full of the triangular stamps, about one-quarter of which were the wood block prints. In 1864 he charged four shillings each for the 1 and 4 penny values, a price that appears ridiculous today among collectors who may spend years waiting for the opportunity to buy a presentable specimen for what a generation ago would have seemed a fortune for a stamp.

The Swiss stamps in the forthcoming sale, according to a London expert, are a revelation. One of the unusual things is a block of six, unusual, of the double Geneva stamps issued in 1845, and a complete unused sheet of 100 of the early five centime stamp, known as the "large eagle" variety, a single copy of which is now quoted by dealers at about $40. Other rarities that will stimulate interest and bidding at this remarkable sale include a number of the circular British Guiana of various values and many of the later oblong issue, early imperforate Ceylons, old issues of Tuscany, thirteen of the circular Rumania-Moldavia stamps, several choice Two Sicilies, and fine specimens of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Hawaii.

Canton Now Asking Macao's Apology

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Nov. 29.—The Portuguese Minister to Peking came here again from Macao. He, along with Dr. Wu Ting-fang, was invited to a dinner by the British Consul General here.

According to a report emanating from a reliable source, the Portuguese Minister still persists that a commission of inquiry should be despatched by either side and that upon a full investigation being made into the fact, formal negotiations be opened.

The Canton Government appears to maintain a firm stand on the following proposals: (1) The Portuguese, who first commenced firing, shall apologise to the Southern Government. (2) Those Portuguese, who are responsible for the firing, shall be punished. (3) Portuguese vessels shall be prohibited from entering the Chinese waters near the Yinkang Wanchai. (4) Gambling shall be prohibited in Macao.

What Japanese People Ask

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Sir,—I beg to enclose herewith a copy of the resolutions passed at a meeting held in Tokio this day by representatives of thirty-two Associations consisting of members of both Houses of the Imperial Japanese Diet, statesmen, religionists, scholars, lawyers, journalists, army and naval reservists, businessmen and laborers, and to request your kind assistance for the realisation of the objects mentioned therein.

Thanking you in anticipation,
Yours etc.

TORU TERAO,
President.

WHEREAS the Washington Conference involves momentous issues on the successful solution of which the peace of the world entirely depends;

Whereas it is most urgently necessary to establish the foundation for a lasting peace by limiting the naval armaments of the Powers and thereby relieving the peoples of excessive financial burdens on the one hand and removing the chief cause of international complications on the other;

Whereas an allround satisfactory solution of the existing problems is the only effective way to avert future danger to world-peace;

Whereas it is our most sincere desire that all armament and other problems relative to the Pacific be settled in a fair and equitable manner in order to ensure the stabilisation of world-peace;

BE IT, THEREFORE, RESOLVED,—That all racial discriminations be abolished;

That the principles of open door and equal opportunity be applied to all countries of the Pacific without any exception and reservation;

That equality of naval strength be the guiding principle in limiting the naval armaments of the Powers;

That no fortifications or bases menacing other countries be established on the Pacific;

That the introduction into the Conference of problems such as are of sole concern to certain particular Powers or such matters that may be regarded as accomplished facts be scrupulously avoided;

And that the co-operation of the Powers be secured for the restoration of peace in China and Siberia, and no international control be established over these countries.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED.—That the above resolutions be communicated to the President of the United States of America and the delegates of the Powers to the Washington Conference, and their goodwill and assistance solicited for the realisation of the objects stated therein.

Tokio, November 14, 1921.

Lace, Tulle And Net All In One Piece

A machine which not only does the work of the weaver but takes material poured in a liquid form on one side of a roller stamped with the desired pattern and turns out a finished fabric which is a good substitute for lace or silk was shown at the National Exposition of Chemical Industries in New York.

The machine takes cellulose dissolved in a solution of copper and ammonia, poured in a thin paste over the revolving cylinder, which stamps it with the desired pattern, and in turning dips the cellulose into a solution which solidifies it.

While tulle and net are now the chief products of this ingenious machine, a design as elaborate as may be desired can be produced. The fabric naturally is all in one piece.

Outport Thanksgiving

Feast At Wuhu And At Ningpo

(China Press Correspondence)

Wuhu, Anhwei, Nov. 27.—The American community in Wuhu did not overlook Thanksgiving Day. Plans were made by a committee which brought the Americans together for a splendid feast on Thursday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brown on the hospital hill. Thirty five attended.

The house was appropriately decorated with flags, flowers and autumn foliage. Between courses an interesting program was given by local talent. The program concluded with the singing of "America."

At 5 o'clock in the evening, the entire community was invited to a tea given by Messrs. Lanphear and Watts of the Episcopal Mission at their home on Lion Hill.

The Chinese High School students of the Episcopal Mission in Wuhu have just finished their famine relief drive. More than $500 was collected. Two plays were given by the students, and both drew good audiences.

A series of three concerts were given at the home of Mr. Hu, commissioner off Foreign Affairs in Wuhu. The proceeds will go to the famine relief fund.

(China Press Correspondence)

Ningpo, Nov. 28.—Americans in Ningpo, about thirty in number, observed Thanksgiving Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, where they partook of a regular "home-side" Thanksgiving dinner. The evening was spent in games of various kinds.

The regular monthly preaching service of the Missionary Association Sunday night took the form of a Thanksgiving service led by Rev. Charles Bromley.

Last Saturday five of the Mission schools of the city held their annual oratorical contest under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The prize, a silver loving cup, was awarded to the Presbyterian Girls's School. The Boys' Academy, which had won the cup two years in succession, took second place. The contest was held in the Fuzin Presbyterian Church.

Journalists To See The Far East

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 25.—Dr. Walter Williams, founder of the first School of Journalism in the world and recently re-elected president of the World Press Congress, is expected to arrive in Peking about December 1, remaining here about ten days and then going to Shanghai and other points in China, returning to Tokio for Christmas, from where he will sail for America to resume his work as Dean of the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri. He is accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gordon of Columbia, Missouri.

Mr. Frank P. Glass, retired editor and owner of the Birmingham News, Birmingham, Alabama, is also expected to reach Peking in about a week. Mr. Glass, who was elected chairman of the ad interim committee to investigate news services going into and coming out of Japan, Korea and China and to make recommendations as the result of his investigation, expects to spend about two months in China and Korea, especially China, in order to make a study of the news services here. His report will include recommendations for improvement of such services and a report on to what extent they serve the needs of the country and people.

With Mr. Glass are Mrs. Glass and their son, Mr. Frank P. Glass, Jr., and his wife. The younger Mr. Glass is assistant foreign editor of the New York Evening World, being in charge of European news in particular. During his trip to the Far East he is getting in closer contact with the fields of international news gathering and strengthening the New York World's service where possible.

Mr. Thales Coutoupis, managing editor and director of the Nea Ellas, a newspaper published in Athens, Greece, and Mr. W. J. Smith, an Illinois editor, are also with Mr. Glass. Mr. Coutoupis has been a prominent newspaper man in Greece for many years. He was one of the leaders in the revolution which resulted in the overthrow of King Constantine during the World War and was the only civilian member of the revolutionary committee. He served as Minister of Agriculture and Commerce in the Venizelos Ministry under the late King Alexander.

Besides those mentioned, a number of other newspaper men and women, mostly Americans, will be coming to Peking during the next few weeks following the meeting of the World Press Congress in Honolulu.

China's Students Cry For Help In Vain From Japan

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 27.—The Chinese students, studying at Government expense in Japan, not having received their allowances for many months, have declared their intention of returning at once to China. The various attempts that have been made by them to raise funds have failed.

The Chinese Government does not remit their allowances, and the Japanese bankers to whom they have turned in the past for assistance, and who have already loaned money up to $500,000 for the education of the young Chinese, have declared their unwillingness to make any more unsecured loans, and have demanded that the Chinese legation in Japan be mortgaged as security.

This has engaged the Chinese students, according to the reports from Japan, inasmuch as they say that no security should be asked for loans made for educational purposes. This, however, has not influenced the Japanese bankers from their former position.

The Chinese Government has now wired to the Chinese minister to Japan, Mr. Hu Wei-teh, asking him to persuade the students to give up their plan of returning to China, and saying that money will be sent to them within a few days.

In strong contrast to the condition of the students who are supported by the Chinese Government in Peking, is the condition of the students supported by the Chinese Government in Canton. These students have been receiving their monthly allowances in regular fashion.

High Salt Tax Is Protested By Hupeh

(China Press Correspondence)

Hankow, Nov. 25.—Members of the Hupeh Provincial Assembly in Wuchang are protesting against the increase in salt taxes recently levied by General Wu Pei-fu to raise military funds. The question was brought up at two recent sessions, when a majority of that body voted against General Wu's additional levy of salt tax in the Yangtsze provinces.

By order of General Wu Pei-fu, an additional tax of $6.00 has been imposed on every 200 catties of salt, which has increased the price of salt per catty by about 15 percent. The assemblymen based their opposition on two reasons; first, the present tariff of salt revenue is already to high and any increment would make the burden too heavy for the people; secondly, they contend that the regulations for collecting salt revenue are now subject to treaty agreement with foreign powers now constituting the salt gabelle in China.

Harvard Fellow Is Student In Japan

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 26.—Harry Nadell, who holds a traveling fellowship from Harvard University, has arrived in Japan were he will remain for about a month before coming to China. Mr. Naddell is one of the first American university graduates to be awarded a traveling fellowship in the Far East. He will study economic, industrial and social conditions in Japan and China during his year's stay in the Orient. He is now living in a student dormitory at the Imperial University in Tokio in order to become familiar with things Japanese.

No Govt. Cheques Wanted! Give Us Cash, Say Teachers

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 27.—In spite of the fact that officials of the Ministry of Education have been on strike for ten days there is yet no immediate prospect of a settlement of their grievances; namely, lack of pay. Chinese sources give the information that at a meeting yesterday three representatives were elected to see the premier about obtaining their arrears of pay. These delegates after being received by the premier's secretary reported back at the meeting that the Premier had asked Minister Kao Lin-wei to give the officials' a $50,000 cheque for one month's salaries.

PRETENTIONS OF FILIPINOS GIVEN SETBACK BY WOOD

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Nov. 30.—The report of the Wood-Forbes Commission is published here today. It displeases the Filipinos, who, through motions which are to be adopted by the Legislature, will ask President Harding for permission to reply to the report before he acts on the recommendations in it.

The report says:" We find that the people are not organised economically or from the standpoint of national defence to maintain an independent Government. We are convinced that it would be betrayal of the Philippine people, misfortune for the American people, a distinct step backward in the path of progress and discreditable neglect of our national duty, were we to withdraw from the Islands and terminate our relationship there without giving the Filipinos the best chance possible to have an orderly and permanently stable Government.

"We recommend that the present general status of the islands continue until the people absorb and thoroughly master the powers already in their hands. We recommend that under no circumstances should the American Government permit to be established in the Islands a situation leaving the United States in a position of responsibility without authority."

The report suggests that, in the event of failure to receive the necessary corrective action by the Philippine Legislature, the United States Congress should declare null and void whatsoever legislation is causing embarrassment to the Governor-General.

The report would give the United States President power to act in the event of a deadlock between the Governor and the Philippine Senate regarding appointments. The report refers to the Philippine National Bank as "one of the darkest pages in Philippine history."

Naples Riots End With Some Wounds

(Special To The China Press).

Naples, Nov. 28.—Several were wounded today in anti-French demonstrations as a result of reports of a clash in Washington between Premier Viviani and Signor Schanzer. The demonstrators paraded and shouted down with France. In Rome, the foreign office announced that Signor Schanzer had cabled King Victor Emmanuel reports of the altercation with Viviani which occurred in a committee meeting. He said that the discussion was lively but always correct.

Famine Worse And Peking Is Asking New Relief Drive

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 27.—The Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce has telegraphed to the Chinese Chambers of Commerce both in China and abroad stating that the famine conditions resulting from floods in the various provinces are worse than ever before, announcing the establishment of the Famine Flood Relief Bureau, and requesting remittances for the benefit of the stricken areas.
